NESCAC Player of the Week

Brenna Monroe | Wesleyan
First Year, Infield, Southwick, Mass.
Monroe went 7-for-15 with two doubles, six RBIs and four runs in a 4-1 week for Wesleyan. She tallied the game-winning, two-run double in the bottom of the eighth to lift Wesleyan to a 4-3 win in over Trinity in Game 1 of a doubleheader. She was 2-for-3 with a double, two RBIs and a run in a 7-4 triumph in Game 2 of a doubleheader on Saturday, and also registered a multi-hit performance with an RBI and a run during a 9-6 win in the series opener against the Continentals.

NESCAC Pitcher of the Week

Danielle Rinaldi | Wesleyan
First Year, Pitcher, Ewing, N.J.
Rinaldi earned the complete-game win by blanking Trinity, 6-0, in Game 2. She recorded seven strikeouts, and allowed four hits and no walks in seven innings. She was also credited with the complete-game victory in a 9-5 triumph in Game 1 of a doubleheader against Hamilton on Saturday, as she struck out 11 batters in seven innings.

* - NESCAC Divisional Contest

NESCAC Notes

Amherst - Senior Ally Kiddo (San Jose, Calif.) had a hit in all four games, including a 5-for-8 performance in a doubleheader sweep of Keene State, in which she drove in five runs and hit a three-run homer. For the week, she hit .467, slugged .667 and also stole a base. Senior Gina Pagan (Orinda, Calif.) struck out 10 batters over 14.1 innings pitched and earned a victory in the circle in a 9-2 win over Keene State, in which she allowed just one earned run and did not walk a batter. She also threw a complete game against Tufts, striking out five but taking a tough-luck loss.

Bates - Senior infielder Paige Ahlholm (North Andover, Mass.) batted .333 (6-for-18) with four walks for a .455 on-base percentage, to go with eight RBIs in Bates’ 5-2 week. Sophomore Kirsten Pelletier (Sidney, Maine) batted a team-best .391 (9-for-23) with six RBIs and seven runs scored in a 5-2 week for the Bobcats. In the pitching circle, she went 3-1 with a 3.38 ERA on the week.

Bowdoin - Senior Natalie Edwards (Pasadena, Calif.) batted .455 last weekend as the Polar Bears claimed a NESCAC East Division series win over Bates. Edwards had five hits, including a triple and her first career home run in Saturday’s doubleheader sweep of the Bobcats.

Colby - First-year second baseman Hailey Rohall (Weston, Mass.) hit .500 (10-for-20) for the week and hit .600 (6-for-10) in three NESCAC games. She currently has a six-game hitting streak.

Hamilton - Junior Liz Brautigam (Whittier, Calif.), who caught five of six games last week, went 8-for-19 with a double and drove in five runs in six games. She collected three hits and scored two runs in a 7-3 win against Skidmore. Junior Dez DePaulis (Cypress, Texas) pitched in five of the Continentals’ six games last week and posted a 3.55 ERA. She tossed 2.1 innings of scoreless relief in a 9-5 setback at Wesleyan in the first game of a doubleheader win over Sunday. DePaulis came back in the second game and earned the win by allowing one run in 4.1 innings. She suffered the tough-luck loss against Middlebury on Sunday when she gave up one earned run in seven-plus innings as Hamilton was edged 2-1 in eight innings.

Middlebury - Sophomore Melanie Mandell (Harrison, N.Y.) hit .579 last week over six games for the Panthers. She scored six runs, hit five doubles, drove in six runs and added a homer. She hit .538 during the four NESCAC league games, including two three-hit contests.

Trinity - Junior Courtney Erickson (Everett, Mass.) went 9-for-23 with nine runs and six RBIs in seven games. She tripled once and walked. Erickson was 5-for-7 in a doubleheader sweep of Western Connecticut. Senior Rachel Smith (Winchester, Mass.) went 4-1 in five appearances, tossing four complete games and throwing four innings of relief. Smith pitched a four-hitter against Western Connecticut in an 8-2 win, striking out 10 while not allowing an earned run or a walk. She pitched a four-hitter in a five-inning, complete game against Colby on Friday, allowing one earned run with four strikeouts. On Saturday, she hurled a six-hitter with no earned runs and four more strikeouts. In Game 2, she entered the game with two runners on base in the fourth inning and recorded three straight outs and went on to finish the game, yielding two runs and fanning two while not allowing a run or a walk. Smith, who started the week with a hard-luck loss at Wesleyan where she allowed three runs over seven innings, finished the week with a 0.93 ERA over 30 innings pitched, gave up four earned runs totaled 24 strikeouts.

Tufts - In Tufts’ non-divisional doubleheader sweep at Amherst, senior Samantha Siciliano (Chatsworth, Calif.) hit .625 (5-for-8) with a home run, four RBIs and three runs scored. She was 3-for-5 with four RBIs and two runs scored in at 12-9 win in Game 2, including a three-run home run in the sixth inning that put Tufts up 11-5 after Amherst had closed within 8-5. She was also 2-for-3 for a home run in Tufts’ 2-1 win in the opener. Rookie Kristi Van Meter (Amston, Conn.) took a no-hitter into the seventh inning at Amherst and earned a 2-1 victory for the Jumbos in Game 1 on Saturday. She allowed two hits, one run and recorded 10 strikeouts in a complete game. Earlier in the week, in a 9-6 win over Babson, she went the distance, allowing three earned runs.

Williams - Senior Lexi Curt (Moorpark, CA) batted .625 last week with three home runs and nine RBIs in five games as the Ephs went 5-0. She set the single-season home run at Williams with her 11th of the season. Sophomore Rebecca Duncan (Simi Valley, Calif.) pitched six innings and did not allow a run, including a five-inning, one-hit shutout in a 9-0 win over Middlebury in which she walked one and struck out six. She hit .533 (8-for-15) last week with four runs, eight RBIs, three doubles and one home run. On Friday, she was 1-for-4 with an RBI and had a walk-off single in the bottom of the seventh. In the shutout she pitched, she went 2-for-3 with two doubles and four RBIs. In the third game, she went 2-for-4 with a home run and a walk-off single in a 3-2 win.
