Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: Sophomore Jaclyn Griffin (Barrington, Ill.) set the Bentley record with 50 goals this season, scoring three in the NE-10 Quarterfinals to break the previous mark of 49 set by Lauren Ferraro in 2000.

BRYANT: Sophomore Allison Faiola (Billerica, Mass.) set a Bryant school record this season with 66 goals and 90 points. Senior Caitlin Hansen (Spring Lake, N.J.) concludes her career No. 2 all-time at Bryant with 161 career goals, just 10 shy of the school record of 171 held by Shaun Leddy.

SAINT MICHAEL'S: At week's end, the senior duo of Brynne Curran (Cape Elizabeth, Maine) and Amanda Soule ended their careers as the two top scorers in program history. Curran, with 197 career points, also leaves Saint Michael's tops in career goals (158) and single-season goals (63). The senior captain, Soule, graduates with 157 career points on 136 goals and 21 assists.

STONEHILL: The Skyhawks claimed their ninth consecutive Northeast-10 Conference Tournament Championship on Sunday with a 17-10 defeat of Southern New Hampshire. Goaltender Amanda McGeachey earned Tournament Most Valuable Player for her performance in net. Kristen Darrell (West Islip, N.Y.) finished the year with 241 goals, 14 more than Erin Acone's (2003-2006) second place mark (227). Her 309 career points are third all-time in Stonehill College history, as well. Michelle Kelly became Stonehill's fourth individual to win Northeast-10 Conference Player of the Year. Stonehill has had a NE-10 Player of the Year nine of the last ten years. Kelly, a junior, finished 2008 with a career high 91 points. She will enter her senior year fourth on Stonehill's all-time scoring list (165), tied for sixth on the all-time assists list (71), and fifth in total points (236).
