Subject: Responsibilities of Faculty and Student Athletes

In general, faculty members work very well to facilitate the ability of our student athletes to pursue their academic interests and to satisfy all academic requirements while still competing on a varsity team. Varsity athletics is important to the fabric of university life, important not just to the participating athletes but also to the entire student body. On occasion, a situation may arise where a student athlete must choose between class participation and participation on a varsity team.

To avoid such situations and to provide uniform guidelines across the university, this memo outlines the responsibilities of varsity student athletes and faculty members with respect to such matters:

- The student athlete is responsible for providing the instructor with a schedule of all sanctioned contests during the first week of the semester or as soon thereafter as the dates are set.

- Except in extraordinary cases, a varsity student athlete should be excused without penalty from a class when it directly conflicts with a formal sanctioned contest with another university/college and the faculty member has been given the schedule during the beginning of the semester.

- If an exam, quiz or other academic test/presentation is scheduled for the class period for which the student athlete is excused, the instructor is generally expected to work with the student to make reasonable arrangements to take the exam or quiz, or make the required presentation, either before or after the missed class. In cases where reasonable arrangements cannot be made, such as joint student presentations (e.g., IPRO presentations), then the student-athlete will be expected to be present for the quiz, exam or presentation.
• The instructor is responsible for informing the student athlete in a timely manner of any assignment that was made or will be made during the missed class.

• The student athlete is responsible for obtaining class notes from the students who attend the class and for completing all assignments due at the missed class or assigned at the missed class.

• The athletic director is responsible for communicating this policy to the varsity coaches and student athletes.

• The deans of our colleges are accountable for communicating this policy to their faculties.
