You won't get a better camp staff in New England. The Bowdoin boys basketball camp consists of coaches from the collegiate and high school levels, along with current college players. You’ll gain insight from coaches at the top levels and learn new skills from players who have already made it at some of the best basketball institutions.

Director: Tim Gilbride
Head Men's Basketball Coach, Bowdoin

During his career at Bowdoin, Gilbride has earned over 400 wins, set school records for most wins in a season and recorded multiple NCAA Tournament berths.

Scott Faucher, Asst. Men's Basketball Coach, Bowdoin

Scott joined the Bowdoin staff in the fall of 2014 after serving as assistant for St. Michael’s College.

Mark Gilbride, Head Men's Basketball, RPI

Mark is in his 4th season at RPI after serving 5 seasons at Clarkson University.
The Polar Bear Boys Basketball Camp exposes campers to one week of concentrated basketball instruction, including team and individual fundamental skills that will help improve their game. Each individual will have the opportunity to learn from experienced and knowledgeable high school and college coaches, as well as from the current players on the Polar Bear team. Campers will also enjoy the following:

- Instructional stations that focus on fundamentals and team play
- Fun games and competitions
- Camp T-shirt and evaluation
- Access to Greason Pool at Farley Field House

Parents are welcome to stay throughout camp if interested.
