DIRECTOR-Mark Miller

Mark Miller was named as the head coach of the Norwich University Women's Basketball team on September 14, 2006. Miller came to Norwich from Mount St. Mary's University in Emmitsburg, Maryland, where he served as an assistant women's basketball coach during the 2005-06 season. Prior to that, he served for four seasons as the associate head women's basketball coach at Loyola (MD) College. From 1998-2001, Miller served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Georgia Tech. Miller was also a very accomplished high school basketball coach, serving two stints as head girl's coach at Middletown (MD) High School. In 11 seasons, he led the Knights to two Maryland State titles (1989 & 1993) and 237 victories.

CO-DIRECTOR- Allison Flynn

Allison Flynn is in her second year as an assistant coach. Flynn was a two-year standout on the Norwich Women's Basketball team, serving as captain during her junior and senior seasons. Flynn led the Cadets to the GNAC title and was named as GNAC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP. She was also named the All-New England 2nd Team as well as the All-Northeast Region 3rd Team.

Philosophy

The primary objective of the Norwich University Girls Basketball Camp is to teach young girls the correct way to master the fundamentals of basketball. The player will be exposed to the same drills and techniques that many successful high school and college players have used to develop their skills. With the knowledge gained at the Camp, the young player can practice intelligently and with purpose.
