Did You Know

Prior to making the jump to Div. I in 1990, Sacramento State won an AIAW national championship (1981) and three AIAW regional championships (1975-77). In 1989, the team was the NCAA Div. II runner-up.

A four-time all-conference selection, Emily McCormick (2010-13) ranks among the program's top 10 players in nine offensive categories, including first in doubles and second in RBIs.

Izmena Cabrera (2008-09), a first team all-conference player both years, owns the school record for longest hitting streak (21 games) and is tied for 3rd in school history with a .371 average.

Did You Know

Led by All-American right-handers Susie Bugliarello (20-8, 0.59 ERA) and Tami Blunt (18-6, 0.90 ERA), the 1995 Hornet squad posted the nation’s best ERA (0.76). The team was ranked every week of the season in the USA Today/NSCA top 25 poll, finishing the year at No. 8 in the final poll. Bugliarello (221) and Blunt (162) combined to strike out 383 batters in 367 innings pitched. Amazingly, in 53 games, Sacramento State’s pitching staff yielded more than three runs in a game on just three occasions. That included 16 shutouts, 47 complete games and three no-hitters.

Tami Blunt (1993-96), who ranks second in school history in seven pitching categories, finished her career with 61 wins, 90 complete games, 27 shutouts, 650 strikeouts and a 1.14 ERA.

The Lansing, Mich., native was named Coach of the Year in three different conferences (Big West, WAC, PCSC), and was inducted into three different Hall of Fames in her home state of Michigan. Under Strahan's watch, Sacramento State made three NCAA Regional appearances (1993, 1995, 2008) and the team finished below the .500 mark in conference play just once in her last 11 years. Her Hornet squads posted at least 25 wins on 15 occasions.

In 2008, Kayla Meeks had the rare distinction of being named all-conference at two positions, including first team as a designated player and second team as a pitcher after hitting .298 with 14 victories. Andrea Becker (1997-01), who was a two-time team captain and graduated summa cum laude, won a bronze medal with the U.S. men’s volleyball team in 2016 after serving as the team’s head of delegation and sports psychologist.

Did You Know
Sacramento State has combined to post a 52-26 record in Big Sky Conference games over the past four years. The Hornets finished 15-6 in both 2016 and 2015, and 12-4 in 2014. The team narrowly missed a Big Sky regular season title in both 2014 and 2016, finishing a half game back of first place each season. Sacramento State went a perfect 9-0 at home in league play in 2016, and the team won 10 straight conference games at home during parts of 2015 and 2016. In addition, the Hornets have won at least 20 overall games 15 straight years.

Right-hander Taylor Stroud (2011-14) finished her four-year career with 33 wins, a 2.68 ERA, 166 strikeouts and five saves. Opponents hit just .250 against Stroud when she was in the circle.

(36-21, 17-5 WAC)

The 1981 softball team was inducted into the Sacramento State Athletics Hall of Fame on Nov. 10, 2006. The squad was one of three Sacramento State women’s teams (volleyball, golf) to win an AIAW national championship in 1981. Led by head coach E.J. McConkie and the brilliance of pitcher Joanne English, the softball team posted a 37-19 record, including a 7-1 mark at the 16-team national tournament.

In her first season at Sacramento State, former head coach Kathy Strahan led the 1993 squad to a season-long national ranking, the program’s first NCAA Div. I postseason appearance and a runner-up finish in the Western Athletic Conference. The 1993 team finished with a 36-21 overall record and a 17-5 mark in its first season in the WAC. The team played at the NCAAs West Regional in Berkeley where it dropped a pair of 1-0 games to Long Beach State and Cal.

The 1998 squad posted a Div. I program record 40 victories, and was ranked in the USA Today/NSCA national top 25 poll every week during the season. The Hornets, who finished the year ranked eighth in the final poll, became the first Sacramento State team (in any sport) to host an NCAA Regional during the school's Div. I era. Unfortunately, the Hornets fell to Iowa in the first round, and were eliminated in the second round after falling to Cal 2-1.

The 2003 squad posted a 30-26 record, the first in a streak of four consecutive years the program had at least 30 victories. The year was highlighted by a 10-game winning streak, which remains a Div. I era program record. The team was led by freshman Lindy Winkler (top row, fifth player from left), who was named first team all-conference and second team all-region after batting .330 with a program-record seven triples.
DIV. I YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS (1990-PRES.)

The 2006 squad went 35-20 and 14-6 in the Pacific Coast Softball Conference. The team’s winning percentage of .636 remains the second best mark in the program’s Div. I history. The Hornets won each of their final eight games of the season and five players hit better than .320, comprised of Lindy Winkler (1.434), Hilary Johnson (335), Jamie Schloredt (333), Amy Jo McKenzie (.329) and Nikki Cinque (.321).

HORNET SOFTBALL • HORNETSPORTS.COM

SACRAMENTO STATE SOFTBALL
The 2008 squad finished with a 32-21 overall record, a 14-6 mark in the Pacific Coast Softball Conference, and
The Hornets advanced to the NCAA Regionals for the first time since 1995 and seven players were named all-conference. In addition, former head coach Kathy Strahan was named the PCSC Coach of the Year and picked up her 700th career victory in the team's 20-3 win over San Diego on May 4.
Div. I Year-by-Year Results (1990-Pres.)

The 2012 Hornets posted the fifth best winning percentage in the Div. I era (.587) after going 27-19 overall. That season also marked the team's final year in the Pacific Coast Softball Conference as the program would join the Big Sky Conference in 2013. The Hornets had a nine-game winning streak during the season and saw five players named all-conference, including Emily McCormick and Alyssa Nakken being named to the first team.

JOANNE ENGLISH – 1978-81

A four-time first team all-Golden State Conference selection and three-time league pitcher of the year, Joanne English almost single-handedly pitched the Hornets to the 1981 AIAW Div. II national championship. That season, English went 27-12 overall, posted a 7-0 record and a 0.43 ERA at the national tournament and was named the National Player of the Year. She earned each of the Hornets’ seven victories during the tournament, including back-to-back shutouts on the final day to clinch the program’s first national title. She became the third Hornet to have her number (#21) retired on April 8, 2017.
