CAMP STAFF

JIM WARD has completed his thirteenth season as Head Coach of the Connecticut College Men’s Team. Jim has been an educator and coach for 29 years and has worked from the Prep to the NCAA Division I level. Jim has coached at Princeton University, Northfield Mount Hermon School, Union College and Norwich University. Jim was named 2014 NESCAC Coach of the Year.

GEORGE STETSON is an assistant Men’s Coach at Vermont Academy and a former assistant coach at Connecticut College. George played hockey at Proctor Academy, for the Dubuque Fighting Saints in the USHL, and played college hockey in Arizona. He has coached youth hockey in Colorado, Idaho, Connecticut, and Vermont for the past 11 years. George is currently an evaluator for USA hockey.

WILL LEEDY spent two years as the Assistant Coach at Connecticut College where he was responsible for overseeing the Camels recruiting and strength program as well as working with the defense. Beginning fall of 2017, will become an Admissions Officer and Assistant Hockey Coach at Salisbury School. He’s 2015 graduate of Conn who played in 80 games and scored 3 goals and tallied 26 assists over his four years. Has worked as a USA Hockey evaluator at both the State and District levels.

KRISTIN STEELE has served as the women’s coach at Connecticut College for the past fifteen years. Kristin has coached at Northfield Mount Hermon School, Colgate, and Niagara University. Steele has coached numerous USA Hockey Development Festivals and the Empire State Games. Kristin was named 2015 NESCAC Coach of the Year.

JOE GIORDANO was a senior captain this past season at Connecticut College and will join the coaching staff at Conn next year, as an assistant coach. Joe was a forward who played at the Loomis Chaffee School, for Springfield in the Eastern Junior Hockey League, and for the Bismarck Bobcats in the North American Hockey League before going to Conn. Joe will also be coaching a U19 split season team next year and has ran many different clinics for the Connecticut Northern Lights Girls Hockey Program.

MICHAEL DOYLE is a 2015 graduate of Connecticut College who played a pivotal role as a defenseman for Conn for all four of his seasons recording 3 goals and 15 assists in 82 games. Currently, he is the Assistant Varsity Hockey Coach at The Berkshire School where he also teaches math and coaches baseball.
Camel Hockey School

Offered to boys and girls of all abilities from the ages 7 to 16. Camp will run Monday-Thursday, August 21-24 from 9am-12pm. The school’s focus will be fundamental skill development through high tempo drills and small games. Each camper will be on the ice 3 hours per day and participate in an off-ice session that addresses age-appropriate player development information.

Campers should be dropped off at 8:30 am and picked up at 12:00 pm daily. Groups will be divided based on age and ability. The cost of camp is $240 per session with a $25 discount for each additional sibling. Cost of tuition also covers the cost of a practice jersey.

Please fill out the on-line application form to assure a spot in the camp. Payment must be received in full to guarantee a spot. Registration starts at 8:00 am on August 21. School will be filled on a first-come basis.
