Weekly Notes:

BRYANT: Bryant finished its 2008 season with a 43-21 overall record after falling to Franklin Pierce in the NCAA Regional finals. The Bulldogs' 43 wins set a new program wins record, previously held by the 2004 World Series team. Sophomore closer Eric Polvani set a new single-season saves record with his 13th save of the season in Bryant's 12-10 win in Game One Monday. Senior tri-captain Jason Alexander notched his 200th career hit during the tournament, also becoming the program's all-time leader in starts and game appearances. Senior ace Eric Loh also set a new career mark, eclipsing the previous career innings pitched record.

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Franklin Pierce captured its third-straight NCAA Division II Northeast Regional Championship over the weekend. The regional title is the fourth overall for the Ravens who have reached the Division II Baseball Championships in 2003, 2006, 2007 and now 2008. Franklin Pierce hit .486 (36-for-74) in the regional with two outs, totaling 37 two-out RBI over its five games. The Ravens smacked 19 home runs over their five games, including a program-record matching six each in wins over LIU-C.W. Post and Caldwell. Sophomore right fielder Kevin Rivers has belted eight of his nine home runs this season in the postseason with four each in the NE-10 and NCAA Tournaments. Junior Mike Adams set a program record with his 11th win of the season on Monday. He was named Daktronics Northeast Region Pitcher of the Year last week.
