Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: Bentley's first-year head coach Carissa Medeiros earned her first collegiate win in dramatic fashion on Friday as the Falcons came back from a 13-4 deficit to win, 15-14, in overtime. BRYANT: Bryant's Allison Faiola set a new school record with eight goals and added two assists for a school-record 10 points in Bryant's 19-11 win over Rollins. Faiola breaks the school record for goals in a game of six held by Melissa Talamini against Bridgewater State in 2003. MERRIMACK: The Warriors set a program record on Wednesday by scoring 28 goals against American International. The previous game-high was 24 goals, which the Warriors did against Franklin Pierce on April 18, 2007. SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: Juniors Libby Parent and Jennifer Parro (Ipswich, Mass.) moved into first and second on SNHU's career points list over the weekend. Parent has registered 86 goals and 36 assists for 122 points, while Parro has recorded 46 goals and 68 assists for 114 points. The pair surpassed current teammate Maura Murphy (Candia, N.H.), who is currently sidelined with an injury. Murphy, also a junior, has recorded 88 goals and 25 assists for 113 points over her first two seasons. STONEHILL: Kristen Darrell's 197th goal tied her with Colby Confer (2002-2005) for third on Stonehill's All-Time list.
