Ryan Souders is in his fifth year as men's soccer coach at Calvin College. A native of Wheaton, Illinois, Souders is a 2003 Wheaton Academy Graduate and a 2007 graduate of Wheaton College. Heading into the 2016 season, Souders has produced a 14-0-0 season record of 5-6-6 (.851) that includes five MIAA regular season crowns, four MIAA Tournament titles, and three trips to the NCAA III Tournament.

During his time at Calvin, he has also coached five players in Nick Holtrop, Travis Vegter, Sean Broekhuizen, Niko Giansopolous and Nick Groeneveld who have received Division III All-America honors.

In 2015, Souders led Calvin to its first 20-win campaign as the Knights captured the MIAA regular season crown with a 14-0-0 conference record. The Knights finished the 2016 MIAA Tournament with an overall record of 24-1-1. In addition, Souders also leads Calvin in its first No. 1 national ranking in the NSCAA Division III Top 25 poll since 2010.

Souders is the seventh head coach in Calvin men’s soccer history. He was preceded by Roul Bykerk (1959), Tony Brouwer (1960), Marv Zuidema (1961-1967, 1969-1997), Ralph Honderd (1968), Dave VerMerris (1998-2001) and Chris Hughes (2002-2011). Souders was a four-year member of the Wheaton College men’s soccer team and was the starting goalkeeper on the squad that reached the 1994 NCAA III Finals. Souders played a crucial role in his team’s run to the national finals as he collected three saves in a shootout win over second-ranked York (Pa.) in the national quarterfinals. For his efforts, he was named the sectional tournament Most Valuable Player.

Souders served as an assistant men's soccer coach both at Gordon College (Mass.) and at his alma mater Wheaton. He most recently spent two years as an assistant coach at Division I Davidson College in Davidson, North Carolina.

Souders also has experience as both a player and coach at the professional level. He joined the Davidson coaching staff after competing for (non-professional) Bridges F.C. in Chicago in 2009. Prior to returning to the pitch, he served as the goalkeeper coach for the Cleveland City Stars Reserve Team. In 2010, he served as a goalkeeper coach for the Charlotte Eagles, a member of the USL-2 Pro Division.

Souders graduated from Wheaton with a double major, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in applied health science and a Bachelor of Arts degree in business and economics.
