Weekly Notes:

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL: AIC's five victories this season set the school record for wins in a single season.

SAINT MICHAEL'S: Saint Michael's Carla Hesler recorded her 200th victory as a field hockey head coach in Sunday's 3-0 win at Assumption. Hesler is a combined 200-178-8 in 22 seasons (10 with Saint Michael's, eight at Yale and four at Colgate). With a goal and an assist versus Assumption, senior Andrea Slaven has 112 career points, one shy of tying the program record. Her next goal will be the 50th of her career, adding to her program record.

STONEHILL: After losing the first four games of the season, Stonehill has outscored their opponents 45-12 in the last 13. Claire Hourihan became the school record holder for goals (18) and points (43) in a season during this past week.
