2009 NEIBA ALL-NEW ENGLAND DIVISION 3 BASEBALL TEAMS ANNOUNCED
MEDFORD – The Eastern Connecticut State University and University of Southern Maine baseball teams, ranked #1 and #2 in the final New England Intercollegiate Baseball Association (NEIBA) Division 3 polls, both have seven players on the 2009 NEIBA All-New England Teams announced today.

For the second time in his career, Eastern’s Shawn Gilblair was selected as the NEIBA Div. 3 Player of the Year. Entering the NCAA Regional, Gilblair was hitting .401 with eight home runs and 59 RBI in 38 games, while on the mound he was 7-1 with a 2.73 earned run average and 85 strikeouts in 56 innings. He was also Player of the Year in 2007. Trinity senior Jeremiah Bayer is the 2009 NEIBA Div. 3 Pitcher of the Year. Trinity’s second straight Pitcher of the Year, joining Tim Kiely from last season, Bayer entered the Regional with a 10-0 mark, 0.49 earned run average and 78 strikeouts in 73.2 innings. Southern Maine’s Ed Flaherty was chosen as Coach of the Year after leading the Huskies to a 35-7 record and another NCAA Tournament appearance.

Trinity College led the Region with three First Team selections.
