- The Fort Myers campus covers 800 acres, including 400 acres which are restored and preserved wetlands and uplands. A 15-acre solar field provides energy to campus, where 4,748 students live in on-campus housing.

- FGCU was picked to finish first in the preseason ASUN Media Poll and second in the coaches poll, despite losing eight seniors from last season’s team, including WNBA draft pick Whitney Knight.

- Taylor Gradinjan is the team’s top returning scorer finishing with 9.6 points per game and a league-high 90 made three pointers. She started all 39 games and looks to take on a bigger role this season.

- The Highlanders enter their second season in the ASUN after an adjustment period last season. The team was getting used to a new style of play in the league, but managed to win a conference game as well.

- NJIT returns its top-three scorers from last season, including Leah Horton who led the club with 10.7 PPG and 7.6 RPG last year. The senior forward posted a team-high two double-doubles last season.

- Kelly Guarino was an All-Freshman team pick after lighting it up from behind the arc in her first season with NJIT. She was seventh in made threes and three-point pct. Her season-high was seven vs. Virginia.

- Alana Dudley started all 29 games for NJIT at point guard and is a Pre-season All-Conference pick this season. She scored 73 PPG and had a team-best 3.1 assists per game last season.

- Camerin Spahn and Ruta Vedra give the Highlanders a strong senior class and leadership this season. Spahn was the only other NJIT player besides Horton to record a double-double last season.

- USC Upstate has to replace the most successful senior class in the team’s Division I era with four starters graduating, including Brittany Starling, a 1,000 career point and rebound performer.

- Raven Jefferson started 32 of 34 games last season and steps into the leadership role as the lone senior this season. She finished last year with 9.4 points per game, most of any Spartan that is returning this year.

- Guard Tamera Thorpe was the only other returning player to see significant minutes as she played 18.6 minutes per game last season. Her 5.6 PPG off the bench were a boost to the Spartans last year.

- Center A’Lexxus Davis played in all 33 contests and will look to fill some of the void left by Starling in the paint. She averaged 3.4 RPG overall and 4.2 in conference play last season for USC Upstate.

- The Spartans feature several newcomers this season, including Brittney Delva from South Georgia Tech. She dished out 7.5 assists per game last season, third nationally in the NJCAA.

- Another transfer student-athlete looking to make an impact is Morgan Williams. She averaged 9.0 PPG and 7.0 RPG at Coker College before transferring to the Spartans this season.

- Coach George guided the Spartans to their first 20-win season since joining Division I. They won 10 conference games and made a post-season run to the WBI Semifinals last season.
ASUN Preseason Player of the Year, Brianti Saunders begins the year with 1,455 career points, the most of any active ASUN player. Only five previous league players have scored 2,000 career points.

- The Hatters return 100 percent of their scoring from last year’s team that finished second in the ASUN with 66.8 PPG. Saunders had 11 20-point games, while Breana Bey and Aisha Turner had two each.

- Bey was one of the ASUN Newcomers of the Year last season after making an instant impact in the post for the Hatters. She led the team with four double-doubles and four 10-rebound games last year.

- Turner set new single-season best marks in total assists (103) and total steals (53). Her assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.5 per game ranked sixth among ASUN players last season.

- In conference play, Saunders logged 37.4 minutes per game, which was the most in the ASUN. Coach Bria will have some much needed depth this season to keep her team fresh all season long.

- Stetson’s field goal percentage of 43.6 percent was the best in the league and 37th in the NCAA. Senior forward Breana Bey led the league shooting 53.5 percent from the floor a year ago.

- Stetson opens the season with four-straight home games this year. Last year the Hatters posted a 13-3 record at home. They also were 11-0 when scoring 74 or more points last season.
