Gridiron Greats
#roadtoNEBowl - Week 3

Each week, the CCC, ECFC, MASCAC and the NEWMAC will share their football weekly honorees that have been nicknamed the Gridiron Greats leading up to the New England Football Bowl on November 18.

Offensive Players of the Week

ECFC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Brandonn Drumgole, Maritime (N.Y.) (Jr., WR, Mount Sinai, N.Y.) -- Drumgole recorded 13 receptions for the second consecutive week, which are both Maritime single-game records. He also set the single-game receiving yards record with 164 on the game, giving him over 100 receiving yards in each of his first three games with the Privateers. This week he recorded a season-high two touchdowns to give him five on the season. Drumgole also added two kick returns for 22 yards on special teams.

ECFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
John Lauretti, Alfred State College (Jr., DL, Seaford, N.Y.) -- Lauretti had a monster day to lead the Pioneer defense over the weekend. He recorded 13 total tackles, including 11 solo. He also recorded a sack for a loss of 18 yards (2 tackles for a loss - 20 yards) and forced a fumble.

MASCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Quinn Fleeting, Western Conn. State (Sr., QB, Windsor, Conn.) -- Completed 30-of-39 passes (77 percent) for 411 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions in the Colonials’ 37-29 win over Plymouth State. Touchdowns were from 46, 8 and 4 yards with an average of 10.5 yards per passing play.

MASCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Jaquan Harris, Framingham State (Sr., DB, Boston, Mass.) -- Finished with two tackles (one solo), one for a loss of two yards, a fumble recovery with a return of three yards, two interceptions returned for 62 yards, including one on the five yard line with just over a minute remaining to halt a potential game-tying drive in the Rams’ 19-13 win over Bridgewater State. Also recorded three pass breakups.

NEWMAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Corey Creeger, Maine Maritime (Sr., QB, Biddeford, Maine) -- Creeger led Maine Maritime Academy’s offense in a heartbreaking 34-25 loss to Massachusetts Maritime in the 45th Annual Admiral’s Cup. The senior quarterback rushed for 209 yards on 41 carries and three touchdowns, including a long rush of 44 yards. Creeger also totaled 160 passing yards, on six completions, including a long toss of 43 yards. He also chipped in on special teams, serving as the team’s punter and punting three times for 102 yards.

NEWMAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Patrick Vidal, Catholic (Sr., DL, Sussasunna, N.J.) -- Vidal once again keyed a defensive effort the Cardinals that helped Catholic to a 25-20 win over ODAC powerhouse Randolph-Macon. The senior lineman racked up 11 tackles from the interior and recorded three sacks against the Yellow Jackets. Vidal also had a forced fumble, fumble recovery, a pass breakup along with 3.5 tackles for loss. His pressure helped the Cardinals total six turnovers with two fumbles, two interceptions and two turnovers on downs.
CCC FOOTBALL OFFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
Sean Amaru, Curry (Jr., RB, Westwood, Mass.) -- Curry running back Sean Amaru had a solid game on the ground as he contributed 89 yards and a touchdown in the Colonels’ 47-20 victory over Anna Maria on Friday (Sept. 15). He rushed 13 times, averaging 6.8 yards per carry including a 47-yard touchdown dash in the first quarter.

CCC FOOTBALL SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Marc Mrozek, Curry (Jr., K, Stratford, Conn.) -- Curry kicker Marc Mrozek scored 11 points in the Colonels 47-20 victory over Anna Maria on Friday (Sept. 15). He was perfect on his two field goal attempts, converting from 37 and 32 yards. He also converted five of six extra-point tries. Mrozek also punted three times for a total of 136 yards (45.3 yards per punt) with his longest boot going for 54 yards.

CCC FOOTBALL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
Dominique Brunson, Nichols (Fr., DB, Winter Haven, Fla.) -- Freshman Dominique Brunson had a few key firsts for Nichols this weekend. He collected his first collegiate interception in the second quarter, returning it for seven yards, before making it his first multi-pick game later in the period. His second interception halted a nine-play, 45-yard drive for Coast Guard. Brunson also had three tackles on the day.

MASCAC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK
George Lampros, Massachusetts Maritime (Fr., K, Bridgewater, Mass.) -- Made first two career field goals (34, 39) and converted all four PAT attempts in the Buccaneers’ 34-25 Admiral’s Cup victory at Maine Maritime. Averaged 54.8 yards on six kickoffs and 34 yards on four punts.

NEWMAC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Christian Humulock, Springfield (Jr., K, Narragansett, R.I.) -- Humulock was a perfect 9-for-9 on extra points and drilled his first career field goal, a 33-yard attempt, as Springfield finished up its non-conference schedule with a 3-0 record following a 66-20 victory at Mount Ida.

ECFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Matthew Murphy, Maritime (N.Y.) (Sr., K, Seaford, N.Y.) -- Murphy converted on a career-long 48-yard field goal and was also a perfect 5-for-5 on extra points as he contributed eight of Maritime’s 38 points in Saturday’s win over Merchant Marine. The senior also recorded four punts for an average of 46.5 yards per punt, including one fair catch and one touchback. In terms of his kickoffs, Murphy accumulated 414 yards with four touchbacks including a key touchback late in the game to keep the ball away from the Merchant Marine return man and pinning the Mariners deep in their own zone to prevent a late offensive rally.

MASCAC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
Stephen Gacloch, UMass Dartmouth (Fr., QB, Tiverton, R.I.) -- Threw for 251 yards on 13-of-20 passing (65 percent) with four touchdowns in just his second career start in the Corsairs’ 51-26 win over Westfield State. Had touchdown passes of 19, 11, five and 16. Helped the team finish with 448 yards of total offense and the most points scored in a game since 2008.