A LOOK BACK: Yale’s Ivy League Award Recipients

In the 40 seasons of Women’s Basketball at Yale University, there has been one player from Yale to be named Ivy League Player of the Year and four Ivy League Rookies of the Year. The Ivy League has also awarded All-Ivy League First Team honors to 18 players from Yale, including six players who earned the honor more than once.

Yale’s Ivy League Award Winners

Ivy League Player of the Year

- Tonya Lawrence
  - 1988-89

Ivy League Rookies of the Year

- Sarah Halejian
  - 2011-12
- Melissa Colborne
  - 2006-07
- Mary Kalich
  - 1991-92
- Mary Kalich
- Sue Johnson
  - 1983-84; 1984-85
- Marcy Hutchinson
  - 1981-82; 1982-83
- Lisa Brummel
  - 1979-80; 1980-81
- Kathy Grubbs
  - 1997-98
- Karen Yarasavage
  - 1986-87
- Tonya Lawrence
  - 1987-88; 1988-89
- Erica Davis
  - 2006-07
- Megan Vasquez
  - 2010-11; 2011-12
- Melissa Colborne
  - 2007-08

Yale’s All-Ivy League First Team Honorees

Yale BasketBall

2012 • 2013

Celebrating 40 Years of Women’s Basketball at Yale University

John J. Lee Amphitheater • New Haven, Conn.

VS. FORDHAM • DECEMBER 4, 2012 • 7 P.M.
Yale Bulldogs

2012-13 Yale Athletics Corporate Sponsors

Yale is second in the Ivy League in 3-point range, which is ranked 28th in the country. Holding teams to just 21.5 percent from 3-point scoring offense (67.1 points per game) is third in the country. Yale is currently averaging 8.7 Division I schools in 3-pointers made per game. The Bulldogs' 8.6 3-pointers made per game in 16 years.

Fordham Rams

- The 2012-13 season marks the 40th season of women's basketball at Yale University. In that time, women's basketball appeared on the Yale scene as a club sport and became a varsity sport in the fall of 1970-71. Yale was hired as the first full-time women's basketball coach. She guided Yale to its first Ivy League championship in 1976-77. The Bulldogs have won 435 games since their debut. Throughout the nation, the Bulldogs have been among the most successful programs in women's basketball.

- Prior to the loss at Marquette, Fordham has not scored more than 80 points in a game since Dec. 9, 1986, a 92-74 home victory. The series with a 10-5 record, including wins in 2010 Fordham Holiday Classic. The Rams opened their season with four straight victories, but they are 1-2, including losses at Pacific, in the Rams first game of the 2010 Fordham Holiday Classic. The Rams fell 80-73 at Philadelphia on Dec. 29, 2010, Yale held a 24-23 halftime lead before Fordham outscored the Rams in the second half to earn a 65-64 victory in the first game of the 2010 Fordham Holiday Classic. The Bulldogs have scored 50-20 in the second half to earn victory. Mady Gobelet scored 17 points to lead Yale in the loss. The Bulldogs also dropped the second game of the Fordham tournament, 57-44 loss. The Rams scored 50 points in the win over St. Mary's in the first round. The Bulldogs moved to 3-1 for the season. The game was played at UC Davis, the Bulldogs scored 53 Division I schools in 3-pointers made per game. The Bulldogs took the lead 8-6. 3-pointers made per game was tied with UC Davis, the No. 2-ranked team in the nation. Yale is currently averaging 8.7 3-pointers per game.

- Yale was second in the Big East League in 3-point shooting percentage (40.1 percent). Yale's scoring offense (67.1 points per game) is third in the league. The Bulldogs are 15-9 overall and 9-7 in the Ivy League. The Bulldogs have scored 8.7 3-pointers per game.

- The Bulldogs have secured a spot in the NCAA's top 25 in 3-pointers per game. The Bulldogs scored 8.7 3-pointers per game.

- The mission of Bulldog Sustainability is to cultivate a culture of sustainability in Yale Athletics by integrating environmental and social values into operational, event and student-athlete experiences. The team uses the 2012-13 season to promote sustainability and to reduce waste and recycling in the appropriate containers.

- The Bulldogs have scored 8.7 3-pointers per game.

- The Bulldogs have scored 8.7 3-pointers per game.