The Bears: Brown (2-0) earned its second straight win to open the season with a 79-72 win at Quinnipiac Monday evening. Brandon Anderson ’20 registered his career scoring high for the second straight game with 23 points against the Bobcats.

The Terriers: St. Francis (0-2) is coming off an 80-79 overtime loss at Manhattan on Wednesday. Rasheem Dunn and Glen Sanabria scored 13 points each to pace the Terriers. Sunday’s game against the Bears will be the Terriers’ first home game of the season.

Did You Know?: The 106 points scored by Brown against Johnson & Wales rank sixth best in Brown basketball history and are the most points scored since 1987, a 108-78 win over Bryant.

Cambridge Earns Ivy Rookie Honors: Brown freshman forward Desmond Cambridge (Nashville, TN) was named the Ivy League Rookie of the Week after he made a big splash in his collegiate debut, scoring 15 points in Brown’s 106-78 season opening win over Johnson & Wales.
Kiddie Corps: In Brown’s first two games, the young cubs have started two freshmen, forwards Matt Dewolf and Desmond Cambridge, a first-year player in sophomore guard Zach Hunsaker, along with sophomores Brandon Anderson and forward Joshua Howard.

Joshua Howard – Bears Top Returning Shooter: Sophomore forward Joshua Howard (Charlotte, NC) turned in a complete performance against Quinnipiac with 19 points and six rebounds against the Bobcats. He connected on a career high four treys against Quinnipiac, connecting on 4-of-5 shots from beyond the 3-point arc. He opened the season with 10 points and four rebounds vs. Johnson & Wales. He started 22 of 30 games a year ago and ranked fourth in the Ivy League and led Brown in field goal percentage (.518). Howard averaged 8.7 points per game and scored in double figures 11 times, including a career high 20 points against Morgan State.

Brandon Anderson: Back-To-Back Career Scoring Games: Sophomore Brandon Anderson (Mahwah, NJ), the Bears’ top scorer with 23.0 points per game, has been Brown’s go-to player in the early season with back-to-back career scoring games. He netted new career highs of 23 points and five assists in Brown’s win over Quinnipiac, and continued his parade to the free throw line by converting 10-of-13 free throws. He stepped up in Brown’s season opener vs. Johnson & Wales with career highs in points (21), steals (4), and rebounds (6), while connecting on 16-of-17 free throws. The 16 free throws made by Anderson rank sixth in Brown basketball history. He leads the backcourt after a sensational inaugural season, where he started 28 of 30 games and averaged 8.2 points per game. Anderson ranked fifth in the Ivy League with 1.3 steals per game, and poured in 21 points vs. Penn, hitting 5-of-10 field goals and 10-of-11 free throws.

Newcomers in the Front Court: The frontcourt is bolstered with the addition of two talented freshmen, Matt DeWolf (Barrington, RI) and Tamenang Choh (Lowell, MA). DeWolf, who had seven points and six rebounds in his collegiate debut against Johnson & Wales and four rebounds vs. Quinnipiac, is a rugged forward, who averaged 10.4 points and 6.3 rebounds as a senior at Northfield Mt. Hermon. Choh stood out in his collegiate debut with eight points, four rebounds and two blocked shots vs. Johnson & Wales. He came back with seven points and six rebounds in Brown’s win over Quinnipiac. Choh was an All-ISL selection at the Brooks School and MVP of the NEPSAC Class B Championship.

Obi Okolie – Top Returning Scorer: Junior tri-captain forward Obi Okolie (Ajax, Ontario), who started 29-of-30 games for the Bears last season, will miss the early part of the season due to injury. He scored in double figures in 16 games, and is Brown’s top returning scorer with 9.1 points per game, while averaging 4.0 rebounds per game. He grabbed a career high nine rebounds against Harvard and scored season high 18 points vs. Yale.

Okolie, Sullivan and Hunsaker Named Brown Basketball Captains: Brown men’s basketball head coach Mike Martin announced that junior Obi Okolie, junior Chris Sullivan and sophomore Zach Hunsaker have been elected tri-captains of the 2017-18 Brown team by a vote of their teammates.
Jason Massey Returns: Senior guard Jason Massey (Cooper City, FL) grabbed six rebounds to go along with three points in Brown’s season opener vs. Johnson & Wales, and added three assists vs. Quinnipiac. He returns after a year’s hiatus after earning a starting role in 18 of 27 games in 2015-16, and scoring in double figures seven times, including a season high 17 points vs. Maine.

Fuller Up: Junior forward Travis Fuller (Encinitas, CA) came off the bench to score a career high 16 points against Johnson & Wales, while grabbing five rebounds. He played in all 30 games last year, earning eight starts, and scored in double figures 11 times, including a career high 14 points against St. Francis-Brooklyn. Fuller, who averaged 7.5 points per game, is Brown’s top returning rebounder with 5.7 rebounds per game.

Cambridge Named Ivy Rookie of the Week: Freshman guard Desmond Cambridge (Nashville, TN) was named the Ivy League Rookie of the Week after making a made a splash in his collegiate debut with an alley-oop dunk and 15 points vs. Johnson & Wales. Cambridge came back with 12 points and five rebounds in Brown’s win over Quinnipiac. He was the Prep Player of the Year at the Hun School of Princeton, as well as the Trenton Times Player of the Year, and averaged 16.8 points, 5.4 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game as a senior.

Hunsaker Earns Starting Role: Sophomore tri-captain guard Zach Hunsaker (Orem, UT) had 15 points and four rebounds in his debut vs. Johnson & Wales, and added six points and three assists vs. Quinnipiac. He was a NJCAA Division-I First Team All-America at Snow College, and the Region 18 Player of the Year. He led the SWAC with an average of 20.4 points per game, and posted a conference-best 92 three-pointers.

More Backcourt Newcomers: Freshman George Mawanda-Kalema (Burke, VA) netted three points vs. Johnson & Wales. He was an All-State selection as a senior, averaging 20.0 points, 4.6 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game at Episcopal HS. Freshman Jake Shaper (Houston, TX) earned All-Conference honors for three years at the Kinkaid School.

Head Coach Mike Martin: Former Brown basketball standout Mike Martin ’04, the 31st head men’s basketball coach in the program’s 111-year history, has changed the direction and culture of the program in five years as head coach of the Bears, with the building blocks in place to develop an Ivy Championship team. Martin took over the reins of the program in 2012-13 and was named a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award as the nation’s outstanding first-year head coach after leading the Bears to a turnaround season with a 13-15 overall record, including a fourth-place finish in the Ivy standings with a 7-7 mark after winning four of its last five games. Martin's 2013-14 team posted a 15-14 overall record and hosted Brown's first-ever postseason game, playing Holy Cross in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament at the Pizzitola Sports Center. In addition, he guided two-time Ivy League Defensive Player of the Year Cedric Kuakumensah, the Ivy League’s all-time leader in blocked shots. A four-year starter at Brown, Martin was part of the winningest class in Bears' basketball history, posting a 63-45 four-year record from 2000-04. He also helped the Class of 2004 to a school-record 39-17 Ivy League mark during that period -- the best by an Ivy League team, other than Penn and Princeton, since 1970. An Agawam, Mass., native, Martin launched his coaching career at Brown as an assistant coach in 2005-06, and was an assistant coach at Penn from 2006-12.
Sullivan Takes Leadership Role: Bears’ tri-captain junior guard Chris Sullivan (Wilmette, IL) tossed in five points and grabbed two rebounds in the Bears’ win over Quinnipiac. Last year, Sullivan gained playing time with tenacious defense and played in 25 games, missing five games due to injury. He connected on 12 treys for the season, and had nine points in the Bears' season opener against Cincinnati. He is the third Sullivan brother to play for Brown, following in the footsteps of brothers Peter ‘11 and Matt ‘13.

Watch The Bears on the Ivy League Network (ILN): All of Brown’s home games (except those blacked out by national TV) and its Ivy League away games can be viewed on the Ivy League Network. Available on computer, mobile and tablet devices all without the use of an app., packages for Brown’s channel on the Ivy Network are $89.95 for 12 months, $34.95 for four months, $10.95 for one month and $9.95 for a day pass. Packages for the League-wide channel, which features everything the network has to offer, are $119.95 for 12 months, $49.95 for four months and $15.95 for one month.

Bears On The Air: Brown’s entire schedule, home and away, is being broadcast on WPRV-AM 790 with Scott Cordischi, the voice of Brown basketball and football, calling all the action. Game #1  Johnson & Wales at Brown  11/11/17  Providence, R.I.
Brown opened its 112th season of intercollegiate basketball by cruising to a 106-78 win over Johnson & Wales behind sophomore guard Brandon Anderson’s career high 21 points. The 106 points scored by Brown rank sixth best in Brown basketball history.

The baby Bears started two freshmen, forwards Matt Dewolf and Desmond Cambridge (Nashville, TN), a first-year player in sophomore guard Zach Hunsaker, along with sophomores Anderson and forward Joshua Howard.

Both teams were effective from the free throw line, with the Bears connecting on 35-of-40 shots from the charity stripe and the Wildcats converting 24-of-31 free throws.

Junior Travis Fuller also registered a career scoring high with 16 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the field, while Cambridge and Hunsaker added 15 points each. Howard chipped in with 10 points for the Bears, connecting on 4-of-6 field goals. Bears’ sophomore forward David Erebor pulled down a career best and team high eight rebounds.

The Wildcats were paced by Randall Ferdinand with 17 points and Nate Patenude with 15 points.

Brown led by eight points early, but Johnson & Wales grabbed its only lead of the game, 25-24, on a dunk by Brian Hogan-Gary midway through the opening half. The Bears quickly responded with a 15-0 run to take control of the game, 39-25, following two free throws by Hunsaker.

Freshman Tamenang Choh gave Brown its biggest lead of the opening 20 minutes, 58-39, on a layup with three seconds left in the half. Choh went on to score eight points for the game.

Junior Travis Fuller paced the Bears with a career best 10 rebounds.

Anderson registered his career scoring high for the second straight game, hitting 6-of-13 field goals and 10-of-13 free throws, while adding a career high five assists. Howard, who had six rebounds, was 7-of-12 from the field, including 4-of-5 from beyond the three-point arc.

Bears’ freshman forward Desmond Cambridge scored 12 points and had five rebounds, while Choh added seven points and six rebounds.

Quinnipiac was paced by Daniels, who scored 18 points, and Cameron Young with 15 points and nine rebounds. Rich Kelly chipped in with 14 points and five assists for the Bobcats.

Brown jumped out to a 21-8 lead with 11:14 left in the opening half after a trey by Howard. Anderson scored 10 points for the Bears in building the 13-point advantage.

The Bobcats clawed back to within five points, 32-27, on a basket by Jacob Rigoni with 3:10 left in the half.

A 12-7 run by the Bears to close the half, gave Brown a 44-34 lead at intermission, capped off by sophomore forward David Erebor’s rebound and layup with one second remaining.

Game #2  Brown at Quinnipiac  11/13/17  Hamden, Conn.
Sophomore guard Brandon Anderson scored 18 of his career high 23 points in the first half, and sophomore forward Josh Howard added 19 points, as Brown held on for a 79-72 win over Quinnipiac at TD Bank Sports Center. Brown (2-0) earned its second straight win to open the season, while Quinnipiac fell to 1-1.

Leading 44-34 at the half, Brown came flying out of the locker room and built at 19-point advantage, 58-39, with 15:04 left on a layup Tamenang Choh.

Quinnipiac slowly chipped away at the Brown lead and pulled to within six points of the Bears, trailing 74-68 with 1:48 remaining in the game on a layup by forward Chaise Daniels.

Three free throws by Anderson down the stretch sealed the game for the Bears.

Junior Travis Fuller paced the Bears with a career best 10 rebounds.

Anderson registered his career scoring high for the second straight game, hitting 6-of-13 field goals and 10-of-13 free throws, while adding a career high five assists. Howard, who had six rebounds, was 7-of-12 from the field, including 4-of-5 from beyond the three-point arc.

Bears’ freshman forward Desmond Cambridge scored 12 points and had five rebounds, while Choh added seven points and six rebounds.

Quinnipiac was paced by Daniels, who scored 18 points, and Cameron Young with 15 points and nine rebounds. Rich Kelly chipped in with 14 points and five assists for the Bobcats.

Brown jumped out to a 21-8 lead with 11:14 left in the opening half after a trey by Howard. Anderson scored 10 points for the Bears in building the 13-point advantage.

The Bobcats clawed back to within five points, 32-27, on a basket by Jacob Rigoni with 3:10 left in the half.
