NESCAC Notes

Amherst - Senior Ariel Kenney (Chula Vista, Calif.) had a double in each of the three games against Williams last weekend. He hit .545 and slugged .818. He capped his strong outing with a 3-for-6 effort at the plate on Sunday with three runs scored and two RBIs, as well as a stolen base in a 16-4 win over the Ephs. Senior Sam Schneider (San Diego, Calif.) allowed two earned runs and struck out five batters over six innings to help Amherst beat Williams on Sunday and to win the series against the Ephs. Schneider allowed seven hits and did not walk a batter to pick up the victory.

Bates - Junior infielder Dan Trulli (Melrose, Mass.) led Bates to a 3-1 week, batting .313 (5-for-16) with four RBIs. He hit a triple and his second home run of the season to lead the Bobcats. Bates sophomore Nolan Collins (Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif.) earned his first collegiate victory, a 4-1 win over Colby, in a seven-inning start Saturday. He allowed one run on three hits, for an opposing batting average of .111.

Senior Jake Shapiro (Sandy, Utah), threw two perfect innings in relief with four strikeouts, keeping his ERA at 0.00 for the season and earning his third save.

Bowdoin - Senior Joe Gentile (Groton, Mass.) reached base four times, including three hits, two runs scored and two RBIs in Bowdoin’s high-scoring 15-8 win at Trinity on Friday. For the weekend, Gentile batted .333 with a .385 on-base percentage.

Colby - Sophomore William Wessman (Dallas, Texas) hit .455 for the week, including two hits, two runs, and a walk in Colby’s 4-1 win at Bates on Sunday. He also hit two RBIs and an RBI against St. Joseph’s (ME). First-year left-hander Paul Ariola (Malverne, N.Y.) earned his first collegiate win by allowing no earned runs, giving up five hits, and striking out six in a 4-1 road win at Bates on Sunday. He had 10 total strikeouts in 9.1 innings of work, including a relief stint against St. Joseph’s. He had a 1.93 ERA for the week.

Hamilton - First-year Matt Zaffino (New Canaan, Conn.) hit .500 (7-for-14) with seven runs scored in four wins for the Continentals. Zaffino kicked off the weekend with a single, walk and RBI in a 7-1 victory against SUNY Polytechnic. In the nightcap of Saturday’s doubleheader, he added another single. Zaffino went 3-for-4 with a triple, a walk and four runs scored and two RBIs in a 9-5 triumph in the series finale on Sunday. He extended his hitting streak to 12 games with a single and a triple in an 11-4 win against SUNY Cobleskill later on Sunday. Zaffino handled 13 chances in the field without an error and helped turn three double plays. Sophomore Brian Lawson (Herndon, Va.) scattered six hits in seven innings en route to posting his first career shutout with the Continentals in an 8-0 win against SUNY Polytechnic on Saturday. Lawson fanned five and walked two as he picked up his second win at Hamilton.

Middlebury - Sophomore Brooks Carroll (Davidson, N.C.) hit .417 in three games at Wesleyan last weekend, earning two doubles, scoring three runs and driving in three. Junior Colby Morris (Ross, Calif.) was a tough-luck loser at Wesleyan on Friday, allowing one run on four hits over six innings with eight strikeouts.

Trinity - Sophomore Alex Shafer (Baltimore, Md.) tossed a four-hitter against Bowdoin in a 7-2 win. He allowed four hits and two walks and six strikeouts. It was the first complete game for a Bantam pitcher this spring.

Tufts - In four starts last week, junior John Moschella (Little Silver, N.J.) hit .625 for the Jumbos (10-for-16). His three-run home run in Game 2 against Nichols on Saturday broke open a 2-2 tie. He was 5-for-8 with five RBIs and a run in the doubleheader against the Bison and had a team-high four hits and scored four runs in the Jumbos’ win over Keene State on Sunday. Sophomore Brent Greeley (West Chester, Pa.) remained unbeaten (4-0) this week with a seven-inning complete-game against Nichols in the first game of a doubleheader. He allowed six hits and one earned run. He had three assists fielding the ball, including a pickoff at first base in the fifth inning.

Wesleyan - Sophomore Alex Cappitelli (North Caldwell, N.J.) went 3-for-8 at the plate with a double, four RBIs, four runs and four walks to lead the Cardinals to a sweep of Middlebury on Saturday and Sunday. He recorded a 1-for-2 performance, to go along with two RBIs, two runs and two walks during a 12-8 win in Game 2 of the series on Saturday. Juniors Mike McCaffery (Warwick, R.I.) and Pat Clare (Whitehouse Station, N.J.), who pitched a 1-2-3 seventh inning, combined for the Cardinals’ first no-hitter since April 11, 1981.

Williams - Sophomore Mike Stamas (Northborough, Mass.) batted .500 (6-for-12) in a three-game set against Amherst. He knocked out two doubles, drove in one run and scored four times. He did not commit an error in nine total chances, and had one assist. First-year Bryan Woolley (Dover, N.H.) picked up his first collegiate victory, pitching 2.1 shutout innings in relief, in a 5-4 win over Amherst last week.
