Weekly Notes:

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL: Senior Caitlin Mooney tallied the 150th point and 125th goal of her collegiate career this past week, scoring five goals and one assist. She recorded her 150th career point with a goal in the second half versus Saint Thomas Aquinas and recorded her 125th career goal later in the same half.

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Jordan Baillargeon's 10 goals against Norwich were two away from the Div. II single-game record of 12, set by former Raven Jami Ladakakos against Castleton State on April 21, 1999. Classmate Lauren Stille also set a new program record for points by a freshman with her 51 goals and 11 assists in the first 11 matches of the year, surpassing the 43-8-51 line of Courtney Boardman in 2003.

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT: Allison Kownacki moved past Cathy Cardini for first place on the SCSU career scoring list. Kownacki now has 109 career points as an Owl (98 goals, 11 assists).

STONEHILL: Kristin Darrell's six goals this week moves her career total to 219. She is one score away from tying Head Coach Katie Lambert for second on Stonehill's All-Time scoring list.
