NESCAC Player of the Week
Nick Falkson | Tufts
Senior, Infield, Dedham, Mass.

Falkson hit .333 with seven RBIs and six runs scored in Tufts’ first four games of the season in Virginia. His two-run single versus Castleton gave the Jumbos a 3-2 lead after they had trailed 2-0 entering the sixth. He had a hit and scored a run in every game, including going 2-4 with four RBIs and three runs scored in a 17-2 win over Marymount on Sunday, a team that had beat Tufts on Saturday.

NESCAC Pitcher of the Week
Ryan Earle | Wesleyan
Junior, Pitcher, Hanover, Mass.

Earle recorded two saves and a win in relief efforts during a 6-1 opening week for the Cardinals. He earned the save with a 1-2-3 ninth inning during a 5-2 season-opening win over Dubuque. He earned the win against Greenville with a scoreless performance over the final 1.2 innings during a 7-6 victory in seven innings on Monday. In an 8-6 triumph over Oberlin, he entered the game with the tying run on deck and one out in the ninth, and proceeded to get out of a bases-loaded jam to preserve the win.

NESCAC Notes

Amherst - Senior Ariel Kenney (Chula Vista, Calif.) was a consistent offensive threat in Florida for the Mammoths, recording hits in five of their seven games, including a home-run and two doubles. Kenney has started the year with a .333 batting average and six runs scored. Senior Davis Brown (Sea Island, Ga.) carries a .372 ERA home from Florida, having appeared in two games and earning the win in a 6-2 victory over Wisconsin Lutheran. Brown has struck out nine batters and has an 8.38 strikeouts per nine inning ratio so far this spring. Amherst head coach Brian Hamm picked up his 200th win at the helm of the Mammoths.

Bates - Junior infielder Dan Trulli (Melrose, Mass.) leads Bates through eight games in hits (10), home runs (1) and RBIs (7), while batting .303. Senior Jake Shapiro (Sandy, Utah) has pitched three innings of no-hit relief in two appearances thus far, with six strikeouts and a 0.00 ERA.

Bowdoin - Junior Jack Wilhoite (Winchester, Mass.) is off to a hot start to the season for the Polar Bears, batting .417 over five games and slugging .917, including three doubles, a home run and five runs scored. He also has three stolen bases.

Colby - The Mules begin the 2018 season on Saturday versus Keuka.

Hamilton - Rookie Matt Zaffino (New Canaan, Conn.) smashed his first collegiate home run in an 8-2 setback against SUNY New Paltz on Friday in Florida. Zaffino leads the team with five walks, a .500 on-base percentage and a .545 slugging percentage. Sophomore Tom Riley (St. James, N.Y.) posted a 0.00 ERA in two appearances. Riley struck out two in one inning of relief against Fitchburg State on Thursday. He got the start against Rowan on Saturday and fanned three and allowed one unearned run in two innings of work.

Middlebury - Sophomore Hayden Smith (Charlotte, N.C.) is hitting .444 to open the season, going 8-for-18 over five games. Junior Colby Morris (Rose, Calif.) opened the season 1-1 with a 2.13 ERA over 12.2 innings of work, striking out a dozen.

Trinity - Senior Cooper Mooney (Southbury, Conn.) went 8-for-19 in five games with three runs, a double, and four RBIs, as the Bantams won two of three games in South Carolina. He was 2-for-5 with two runs and two RBIs in a 16-13 win against Rochester, and 2-for-4 with a run and the game-tying RBI in a 3-2 victory over Roger Williams. Mooney also had two hits in two losses to Case Western Reserve, giving him a pair of hits each of the last four games. He also committed just one error in 26 chances at 2B and was involved in four double plays. Sophomore Alex Herbst (Clarendon Hills, Ill.) did not allow an earned run in three relief appearances with five strikeouts and just one walk in five innings. He allowed just a single unearned run and fanned three batters in four innings of Trinity’s 3-2 win against Roger Williams. He also stole a base as a pinch runner in a loss to Case Western Reserve.

Tufts - Sophomore Brent Greeley (West Chester, Pa.) pitched eight innings, allowing just one run to lead Tufts to an 8-2 victory over Saint Vincent on Sunday. He allowed just three hits in his first six innings and did not allow a runner to reach second base during that stretch. By the time he gave up a run in the seventh, the Jumbos already had eight runs on the board. He allowed six hits, struck out three and did not walk a man in his second collegiate start. Head coach John Casey earned his 700th win with Tufts’ victory over Castleton.

Wesleyan - Sophomore Tanner Fulkerson (Longmont, Colo.) has gone 10-for-28 (.357 batting average) at the plate this season with seven RBIs, five runs scored and three doubles, as the Cardinals sit at 6-1 on the season. He is slugging .464 with a .419 on-base percentage. Fulkerson went 3-for-5, with four RBIs and a pair of doubles in an 8-3 win over Hamline on Saturday.

Williams - The Ephs begin the 2018 campaign on Monday when they face Caltech.

NESCAC Player of the Week

Courtney Erickson | Trinity
Junior, Infield, Everett, Mass.

Erickson batted .500 in eight games, leading Trinity to a 7-3 record. She was 15-for-30 with 13 runs, two doubles, a triple, three home runs, and 14 RBIs. She drove home the game-tying runs in a 2-1 win against UMass Boston and a 14-13 win against Roger Williams, both comeback wins during Trinity’s seven-game winning streak.

NESCAC Pitcher of the Week

Kirsten Pelletier | Bates

Pelletier tossed a no-hitter in Bates’ season opener against North Central (Minn.) on March 6, the team’s first since 2013. Pelletier is 5-1 with a .99 ERA and 44 strikeouts through 42.1 innings, limiting opposing hitters to a .180 batting average.

NESCAC Notes

Amherst - Sophomore Andrea Sanders (Bernardsville, N.J.) recorded hits in nine of 10 games and registered multiple hits in six of those contests as the Mammoths went 9-1 during spring break play. She batted .500 (18-36) and slugged .722, with five extra base hits. Sanders has scored 13 runs, including three runs in a 10-0 rout of Roger Williams and both runs in a 2-0 win over Plymouth State. Junior Lorena Ukanwa (Morgan Hill, Calif) is 5-0 to open the season, recording wins in all of her appearances so far and pitching three shutouts, including a one-hitter against Plymouth State in which she struck out seven batters. She is averaging 7.52 strikeouts per seven innings this year and has an ERA of 1.30. In her last four outings, Ukanwa has given up just two runs in 21 innings, allowed only eight hits and struck out 25 batters.

Bates - First-year Payton Buxton (Middlebury, Vt.) has driven in 18 runs through 12 games, 11 more than any other Bobcat, helping Bates (9-3) to its best start through 12 games since 1994. Buxton is batting .423, reaching base at .500 clip and slugging .676. In the circle, she is 2-2 with a 2.18 ERA and 30 strikeouts through 25.2 innings.

Bowdoin - Bowdoin’s Caroline Rice (Santa Ana, Calif.) is off to a strong start to the season in Florida as the Polar Bears are off to a 6-2 start. Through eight games, Rice is batting .429 with six runs scored, 12 hits and eight RBIs. She also boasts a .500 on-base percentage and is slugging at .607 with a home run and just one strikeout in 31 plate appearances. Sophomore Kate Hoadley (Pleasanton, N.H.), boasts a 2-1 record, tossing three complete games, with a 1.33 ERA and 13 strikeouts in 21 innings. She has allowed four earned runs over those 21.0 frames and walked three.

Colby - The Mules begin the 2018 season on Sunday when they take on Wellesley.

Hamilton - Sophomore Caitlin Berreitter (Simi Valley, Calif.) hit .472 (17-for-36) in 10 games in Florida. Berreitter hit safely in eight games last week with a .500 on-base percentage and .667 slugging percentage. She also committed just one error in 33 chances in the field. Berreitter doubled twice and drove in a run in a 6-5 win against Franklin & Marshall in the season opener on March 13. She went 4-for-4 with a double and two stolen bases in an 8-2 loss to Stevenson later that day. Berreitter singled three times and scored four runs in a 17-10 victory against Bethel on March 14. In her best game of the week, she went 4-for-4 with a double, her fifth career home run, scored three runs, and drove in two in a 6-5 setback against Anderson. Senior Zoe Singer (Ridgewood, N.J.) didn’t allow a run in her last two appearances in Florida. Singer picked up her third career save by tossing 1.2 hitless innings in a 2-1 win against Oberlin. She followed up with her second career shutout, an 8-0 victory against SUNY New Paltz. Singer allowed just two hits and a walk and fanned three hitters in six innings. She also went 3-for-5 at the plate with an RBI in two wins.

Middlebury - The Panthers open the 2018 campaign on Friday versus Thomas.

Trinity - Sophomore Lindsay Golia (North Branford, Conn.) went 3-for-10, tossing complete-game wins against Wheaton, Maine-Farmington, and Becker. She tossed a four-hitter with six strikeouts in a 5-1 win against Wheaton. Golia scattered eight hits with six strikeouts in a 4-3 win over Maine-Farmington, and allowed seven hits with five strikeouts in a 5-4 win against Becker. She also struck out five in 4.1 innings against Roger Williams, finishing the week with a 2.21 ERA and 24 strikeouts in 25.1 innings pitched.

Tufts - Junior Kristen Caporelli (Taunton, Mass.) had five RBIs in Tufts’ first four games, including a walk-off single which lifted the Jumbos to a 1-0 win over Chicago. She was also 2-for-4 with three RBIs and two runs scored in a five-inning victory over Clarkston. Rookie Kristi Van Meter (Amston, Conn.) pitched a four-hit shutout in her collegiate debut as the Tufts softball team opened 2018 with a 1-0 victory against Chicago. She struck out seven and walked one, while getting 12 outs on fly balls. Van Meter worked out of danger in the second when the Maroons loaded the bases with one out. She also started and pitched four innings in Tufts’ 7-1 win over Carroll (Wis.). She allowed two hits and no runs, while striking out four. In the two games (11 innings), she allowed no runs and six hits.

Wesleyan - Senior Riley Wiener (West Springfield, Mass.) went 8-for-22 (.364 batting average) at the plate for the Cardinals during their opening eight games. She also collected four RBIs, four walks, two runs scored and a double. She has recorded three multi-hit games this season. She hit the game-winning RBI single in the fifth during a 4-2 win over Lasell. She has a .481 on-base percentage and .409 slugging percentage, to go along with a perfect fielding percentage of 1.000. Rookie Danielle Rinaldi (Ewing, N.J.) earned her first win in a Cardinal uniform with a complete-game shutout during a 5-0 victory over Elmhurst. She recorded 10 strikeouts against Elmhurst. During a 4-2 loss to Marian (WI), she finished with 11 strikeouts, giving up only two earned runs in 6.1 innings.

Williams - Williams opened the season with four straight wins. Senior Lexi Curt (Moorpark, Calif.) leads the Ephs with three home runs and three doubles, while scoring seven times. Junior Mackenzie Murphy (Diaibo, Calif.) has picked up two wins in the circle and has contributed six hits, including two doubles and two home runs, three RBIs and five runs scored.
