Greetings from...

Dennis D. Berkey
WPI President

It is a pleasure to join Dana Harmon in welcoming fans and visitors to our varsity athletics competitions at WPI. Cathy and I hope that you will enjoy your time on our campus, and that we will have many occasions to celebrate outstanding performances by our student-athletes.

Varsity athletics provides an important opportunity for students to develop their talents and strive to meet personal goals of development and achievement. Especially in the team sports, the opportunity to work cooperatively with others and to develop a shared commitment to success is invaluable. Our programs in club sports, intramurals, and recreations provide many of these benefits at different levels of intensity.

WPI is proud of its strong tradition and record of achievement in sports and recreation, an important component of a University committed to excellence in all its endeavors.

Dana Harmon
Director of Physical Education, Recreation, & Athletics

Welcome to Alumni Field and today’s football game! Ed Zaloom and his staff have worked hard to develop the 2004 team as we begin our inaugural season in the Liberty League. We are excited to join this new conference and test our mettle against some of the finest Division III schools and football programs in the country.

I hope you will join me in supporting both teams in a positive and respectful way as the students and coaches have been working hard to prepare themselves to perform their best on the field today. We want all who attend today’s game to have an enjoyable experience and would welcome returning to WPI because of our great fans and positive competitive atmosphere.

Our staff members at today’s game are eager to make your experience enjoyable and if they can help in any way, please feel free to ask their assistance. We hope your visit to our campus is memorable and that you will continue to support WPI athletics throughout the year. Enjoy the game!
Meet the Head Coach

Ed Zaloom

Brooklyn native Ed Zaloom is entering his sixth year at the helm of the WPI football program.

WPI’s 17th head football coach, Zaloom has several qualities that make him the ideal head football coach. It is said that his coaching style is entertaining, his philosophy stimulating, and his personality magnetic.

In five years, the evidence is clear-cut. WPI football is exciting. It is entertaining. And one huge upset per year is now the norm.

How so? Well, with a 5-4 overall record in 1999, Zaloom led WPI to its first winning season since 1994. His ’99 squad was also the first to beat Union in 23 seasons. Within Freedom Football Conference play, as late as Oct. 30 that year, only two teams had an opportunity to win the conference title – and one was WPI.

It was a remarkable season in ’99 in that four times the Engineers pulled out wins by scoring a TD in the final three minutes of play. It was Zaloom’s attitude that many of his players found inspiring. Fourth quarter come-from-behind victories became the norm – which proved to be great for the school, great for the fans, and great for team morale.

In 2001 and 2002, WPI finished 4-6 each year and 3-3 in conference play. In 2001, WPI defeated Western Connecticut State, 22-15 – at the time ranked #13 in the nation – in one of its biggest wins in school history. Entering the final weekend of the season, WPI still had a chance to go to the NCAA Playoffs. In 2002, WPI won its last two games, and three of its last five.

In 2003, WPI again finished 4-6. Along the way, however, WPI went 2-1 versus New England Division III Top 10 teams, including a pulsating 49-38 win over Western Connecticut State during which WPI scored 21 points in a span of 2:38 in the game’s final 3 minutes.

Zaloom’s record is now 31-46 in eight years as a head coach overall — three at Siena (12-16), and five at WPI (19-30).

Prior to WPI, Zaloom was the first full-time head coach in the history of Siena College, where he inherited a program with a 2-28 record at the Division I-AA level. During his three years (1996-98), he compiled a 12-16 record. That included a 6-3 mark in 1997, which translated into the 8th most significant turnaround in I-AA that season. His teams went 2-7 in ’96, 4-6 in ’98.

Previous to his head coaching stint at Siena, he spent 13 seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University at Albany in New York. While at Albany in ’94, his “freeze option” attack set a single-season record for total yardage. From 1983 to ’94, he also served as head baseball coach at Albany, where he led the Great Danes to a 124-117-2 record.

Zaloom was a running back and defensive back at Brooklyn Prep before heading to the State University of New York at Cortland were he earned his bachelor’s degree in education in 1975. He began his head coaching career as an assistant football coach and head baseball coach at Port Byron (NY) High School. For three years (1976-78), he held that position until he joined the football staff at Albany as a graduate assistant coaching the wide receivers.

After earning his master’s degree in educational administration from Albany in 1979, Zaloom was named head football coach at Fulton (NY) High School, where he stayed until moving to Appalachian State in 1982. During his stay at Fulton, Zaloom was named Onondaga Central Coach of the Year.

Coach Zaloom on...

His Coaching Philosophy: “In football, unlike most other sports where skill is the order of the day, I believe that chemistry, heart, commitment and determination can win a ton of games. Unity and trust must become the blocks upon which to build. And through that the team can develop the belief that it can win. I am a firm believer in two things – a coaching staff that demands a most fervent attention to detail, and a football team that understands the importance of commitment and chemistry. Winning is always a can-do thing. It has got to be, however, something your players and coaches crave, thus stimulating the inexhaustible will and dedication necessary to achieve success.”

Being at WPI: “I have come to respect WPI as one of the nation’s elite institutions of higher learning. WPI’s unique approach of a hands-on education is what impresses me the most. A WPI student learns by doing. The first thing any football coach must ascertain before taking a job at a particular school is whether or not that school can attract top-notch high school football talent. After witnessing the love that these student-athletes have for WPI, and after reviewing the school’s most impressive placement record and percentage of graduates who secure top-paying, prestigious jobs. I had no doubt that we could attract talented athletes. My main attraction to WPI, simply stated, is that it is a fine school that should appeal to accomplished students from all over the country.”

On the Liberty League and WPI’s Schedule: “We are very excited to be a part of this new league, the Liberty League. I feel the Liberty League will quickly develop into one of the top conferences in the nation from a football perspective. I believe there will be no guaranteed wins. We’ll have to be ready to play no matter the opponent. Like Coast Guard and Kings Point, we have waited three years for this opportunity.

“WPI has always played some of the strongest teams in the Northeast quadrant, and that will not change. Out of league, we face Worcester State, a perennial Top 10 team in New England. Endicott and Husson are up-and-coming. In league, we have always played RPI and Union, two of the better teams in the East. They are familiar foes, as are Coast Guard and Kings Point, both of which are coming along with us from the Freedom Football Conference. And we are anxious to start new rivalries with Hobart, Rochester, and St. Lawrence. The schedule should be difficult all the way around, but if we prepare correctly, we can still be successful.”

Ed Zaloom is interviewed by Worcester Telegram & Gazette sportswriter Jim Wilson on Media Day.
Meet the Assistant Coaches

Chris Robertson
Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs

Chris Robertson enters his sixth year at WPI, all six as defensive coordinator. This season, he will focus on the defensive backs. He also doubles at WPI as head baseball coach. Chris served as one of Ed Zaloom’s assistants the previous three years (1996-98) at Siena. In ’98, he was the coordinator of the Saints’ defense, following his first two seasons as the line backers coach. He is a ’96 graduate of the University at Albany, where he was a three-year starter and captain of the football team, as well as a two-time GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American. Chris received his bachelor’s degree in mathematics and his master’s degree in educational psychology from Albany.

Pat Hickey
receivers/Tight Ends

Pat Hickey did not have to move very far — just down Salisbury Street — to get his first job out of college. A 1999 graduate of Assumption College (where he was a four-year letterwinner at receiver for the Hounds), Pat is entering his sixth year at WPI as an assistant coach. In his first two years, he focused on the running backs. Pat is now also taking on new duties as WPI’s Director of the Fitness Center. In his final year at Assumption, he received a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award from Central Massachusetts for his outstanding performance on the field and in the classroom.

Brian Boyle
Inside Linebackers

Brian Boyle is entering his second year as an assistant football coach at WPI. It is his fourth year as a coach overall, however, as he served as the defensive backs coach and strength conditioning coach at Merrimack for two years prior. At WPI this season, Brian will concentrate on the inside linebackers. At Merrimack, Boyle was a four-year starter at defensive back. He was a two-time recipient of Merrimack’s Defensive Back Award (1998-99). He also received the “12th Man” Award as a freshman. A resident of Worcester, Boyle currently serves as an assistant superintendent for the Methuen Construction Company.

Steve Meyer ’01
Offensive Line

WPI alum Steve Meyer is entering his second year as an assistant coach at WPI, where he will concentrate on the offensive line. A native of Zelienople, Pennsylvania, Steve graduated from WPI in 2001 with a bachelor’s of science degree in biomedical engineering. He is currently pursuing his master’s degree at WPI in mathematics. As an offensive tackle for WPI, he was a three-year letterwinner. Steve currently coaches freshman baseball at Clinton High School, where he also teaches math.

Mike Bernard ’01
Defensive Line

Mike Bernard is entering his first year as an assistant coach at WPI. He is a 2001 graduate of WPI, where he played football as a running back. His senior season was cut short when he was involved in an automobile accident in May, 2000. But he later recovered nicely. The Tewksbury native majored in mechanical engineering at WPI. He is currently working as a mechanical engineer at Raytheon in Andover.

Jared Powers
Running Backs

Jared Powers is entering his first year as a coach at WPI. A Brooklyn, NY native, he will be concentrating on the running backs. Jared recently graduated with his bachelor’s degree in Communication from William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri. Jared originally went to Ferrum College in Ferrum, Virginia where he was First Team All-League as a sophomore. After transferring to William Jewell, he became a Third Team All-League performer as a junior.

Tim Sample
Offensive Line

Tim Sample is entering his first full year at WPI as well as his first year in the coaching ranks. Tim is a 2001 graduate of the University of New Hampshire where he earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration. A Falmouth, MA native, Tim graduated from Falmouth High School. At UNH, he was a three-year starter along the offensive line, and also handled long-snapping duties for the Wildcats. For the past two years, Tim worked in the computer software industry outside of Boston.

Jonathan Woods
Outside Linebackers

Jonathan Woods is entering his first year at WPI as well as his first year in the coaching ranks. He will be concentrating on the outside linebackers. A 2004 graduate of Union College, Jonathan majored in psychology. As an athlete, he was a two-year starter on the offensive line and a captain his senior year at Union.

Byron Menides
Ass’t Receivers/Tight Ends

Byron Menides is entering his first year as an assistant coach at WPI. A 1953 graduate of Dartmouth College where he earned his bachelor’s degree in International Relations, he also holds an MBA from Dartmouth’s Amos Tuck School. He was a defensive and offensive tackle at Lynn English High School, where later he was a line coach for its junior varsity. From 1978 through 1996, he was an adjunct professor in the WPI Department of Management. From 1992 to the present, he has been an adjunct professor at WPI’s School of Industrial Management.
2004 WPI Football Outlook

The 2004 football season at WPI is one that will be marked by change, yet one that will also be marked by continuity. How so?

There is much that is new in 2004. Six new assistant coaches, a new defensive alignment, four new opponents, a new league, new positions for key players, even new uniforms.

Yet at the same time, much will remain the same. The same head coach, the same offensive system, six familiar opponents, 28 returning lettermen, 13 returning starters (which technically does not include stars Ryan Jennette and Preston Roberts), an offensive line that returns nearly intact, and the return of a First Team All-American return specialist.

So let’s sort it all out.

First of all, WPI head coach Ed Zaloom, now in his sixth year, is very hopeful that his squad will improve upon the 4-6 records the team has finished with in each of the past three years. If he is to do so, much of it will have to be achieved in a new league, the Liberty League, formerly the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association. That league includes familiar opponents Rensselaer and Union, along with Hobart, Rochester, and St. Lawrence. In addition to WPI, Coast Guard and Kings Point have also departed the Freedom Football Conference to join this new league.

If the improvement is to come, a new defensive alignment may prove to be the catalyst. WPI will shift from a 4-4 to a 3-4 alignment this season, with senior star and Worcester Area Defensive Player of the Year Ryan Rackliffe, last year’s leading tackler (with 75) and sack artist (with 5) and a First Team All-New England performer, trading his tackle slot to become an outside linebacker.

Three talented down linemen also return in the names of seniors Chase Cote and Tim Gagnon, as well as sophomore Nate Levesque. The linebackers will include seniors Gilead Ziemba (69 tackles) and Joe Fontecchio, as well as junior Chris Lynch. The secondary will include seniors Miguel Concepcion and Vinny Scotto, and hard-hitting junior Bryan Douglass.

Concepcion deserves special mention. Not only was he a First Team All-Freedom Football Conference performer as a cornerback, he was also a Don Hansen’s First Team All-American as a return specialist. Among his other numerous honors, Miguel was also the Eastern Region Return Specialist of the Year, and named First Team All-New England. He was so honored because he returned three kickoffs for TDs last season, a WPI and FFC record and one shy of the NCAA record.

More reason for optimism abounds on offense.

The skill positions on offense offer a great deal of promise. Returning at quarterback is senior captain Ryan Jennette, who finally has the position all to himself. Last year, he shared QB duties with Adam Ralston. A good passer, Jennette threw for 834 yards and 2 TDs a year ago.

Also returning is All-ECAC running back Preston Roberts, a career 2000-yard rusher, who missed almost all of 2003 with a knee injury. Finally healthy, Roberts will likely move out to a wide receiver slot where WPI could use the help. That move was made easier because junior Billy Orfalea proved to be such a pleasant surprise at RB last year, when he gained 736 yards (5.3 yards per carry) and scored 11 TDs rushing. Add steady junior Brian Farragher (6.7 yards per carry) into the mix at fullback and that could spell trouble for WPI opponents.

The other wide receiver slot will come from a host of untested candidates.

Senior Ryan Jennette (#10) finally has the starting QB slot all to himself in 2004. Senior Preston Roberts (#21), a career 2000-yard rusher, will move to wide receiver. And Miguel Concepcion (#28), a First Team All-American as a return specialist, will again start at a corner position.

2003 Individual Statistics for 10 Games
The Liberty League sponsors championships in 24 sports. The member institutions of the league place the highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience and on the successful completion of its student-athletes’ academic programs. The member institutions seek to establish and maintain an environment in which a student-athlete’s athletic activities are conducted as an integral part of the educational experience.

Originally founded as the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association in 1995, the conference was renamed the Liberty League during the summer of 2004. The new league includes founding members Clarkson University, Hamilton College, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, the University of Rochester, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, St. Lawrence University, Skidmore College, and Union College. Vassar College became a full member of the league during the 2000-01 academic year. The U.S. Coast Guard Academy, the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, and Worcester Polytechnic Institute joined the Liberty League during the 2004-05 academic year as associate members in football only.

“Our conference has evolved dramatically over the past 10 years and we felt the timing was appropriate for this change,” League President and St. Lawrence Athletics Director Margaret Strat said. “The new name and logo project a positive image for institutions that have worked together to provide a very meaningful educational experience for thousands of student-athletes.

“They will help us tell our success story and better reflect who we are as a league. We have stood for tradition and excellence and we’re proud of what we have established.”

During the 2003-04 academic year, the member institutions sent 17 teams in 14 sports to their respective NCAA Tournaments, as well as dozens of individual student-athletes to NCAA Championship events in cross country, swimming and diving, and tennis.

Among the best in the nation in the classroom as well, Liberty League student-athletes garnered five 2003-04 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards and 57 2003-04 CoSIDA Academic All-District honors.

Fans can visit the Liberty League online at www.libertyleaguestd.org.

Freedom Football Conference
Final Wrap-Up

Last fall marked the 12th and final year of the Freedom Football Conference, an offshoot of the New England Football Conference. The following is intended to serve as a final wrap-up for WPI within the FFC.

Originally composed of nine schools – USMMA at Kings Point, Norwich University, Plymouth State College, Springfield College, U.S. Coast Guard Academy, University of New York at Stony Brook, University of Massachusetts-Lowell, Western Connecticut State University, and Worcester Polytechnic Institute – the FFC competed as an NCAA Division III conference for the first time in 1992. At the conclusion of the 1995 season, UMass-Lowell and Stony Brook left the conference, reducing the number to seven.

Beginning this fall (2004), WPI, Coast Guard, and Kings Point will join the newly-named Liberty League. Norwich and Springfield will join the Empire 8. Western Connecticut State will join the New Jersey Athletic Conference, while Plymouth State will compete as an independent.

In the 12 years of its existence, the FFC had eight different champions at one time or another. WPI is proud to say that it won the first two conference titles outright in 1992 and 1993. Plymouth State and Kings Point were co-champions in 1994. Plymouth State won the title outright in 1995. Springfield and Coast Guard shared the title in 1996. Coast Guard captured the crown in 1997, followed by Springfield in 1998, Western Connecticut State in 1999, and Springfield in 2000. In 2001, Western Connecticut and Plymouth State went 5-1 in FFC play to share a title, although WCSU went on to represent the conference in the NCAA’s. The Colonials’ only league loss was at WPI. In 2002 and 2003, Springfield won both crowns outright.

WPI AND SPRINGFIELD WERE THE ONLY FFC SCHOOLS TO WIN TWO OR MORE CONFERENCE TITLES OUTRIGHT.

— 2003 FFC FINAL STANDINGS —
INDIVIDUAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Senior P Ben Achin must be considered one of the greatest punters in WPI history. His four-year average of 36.54 yards per punt is tops among all-time WPI punters (with at least two years on the job). His totals are as follows: 50 punts for 1753 yards (35.06 avg.) in 2000; 40 for 1498 (37.45) in 2001; 53 for 1905 (35.94) in 2002; and 42 for 1604 (38.19) in 2003. That totals 185 punts for 6,760 yards for a 36.54 yard average for his career.

Junior CB/KO Returner Miguel Concepcion established a WPI record for most touchdowns scored on kickoff returns in one season with 3. That is one shy of the NCAA Division III single-season record of 4. Miguel scored TDs on kickoff returns consecutively the first two times he touched the ball to open the season at Endicott (90 yards, 97 yards). He added another TD against Western Connecticut State in game #8 that season, returning that opening kickoff 82 yards. Concepcion was named a First Team All-American as a return specialist for his efforts.

RB Preston Roberts has compiled 2,021 yards rushing in his career—he is 6th on the all-time WPI career rushing list. He needs just 4 yards to move into the top 5.

RB Preston Roberts has scored 144 points in his career and needs to score 13 more to move into 4th place in WPI annals. He is currently tied for 6th place in WPI history.

Meet the 2004 Captains

MATT GUIGLI ‘05
#20 Running Back, 6-1, 195
Wellesley, MA
Major: Civil Engineering

Originally a running back by trade, Matt Guigli is entering his fourth year as a player for head coach Ed Zaloom, and his first as a captain. He has been a starter off and on for the last three seasons. Don’t be surprised, however, to see Guigli in many different positions this season, including as a slot receiver or as a tight end. Matt has also served as a punt and kickoff returner during his career, during which he has missed a few games as a sophomore and junior because of a variety of ailments. “Matt Guigli is a committed, dedicated, and tireless worker,” said head coach Ed Zaloom. “He is a solid all-around athlete. If he remains healthy, he’ll be a big factor for this team. That’s because he is one of those rare players whose fast enough to help on the perimeter, yet strong enough to get the job done inside. In fact, I would label him one of the strongest players on the team.” A civil engineering major, he is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and is involved with several of their community service projects. His father, Robert, is WPI Class of 1978.

RYAN JENNETTE ‘05
#10 Quarterback, 6-3, 215
Webster, MA
Major: Management

Ryan Jennette has been an integral member of the WPI football team for the past three seasons. The 6-3, 215-pounder started at least one game each in his first two seasons at quarterback (one as a freshman, two as a sophomore). While technically not a starter last year as a junior, Ryan received a great deal of playing time, effectively sharing the duties equally with then-senior Adam Ralston. The two rotated, playing two series or so each before switching off. But Ryan will have the starting job all to himself to begin the 2004 season. Ryan threw for 834 yards and 2 TDs as a junior in 2003, when he completed 63-of-122 passes. In his WPI career, he has thrown for 1,319 yards and 4 TDs. A local product, he threw for over 2000 yards and over 20 TDs as a senior at Bartlett High School in Webster. At WPI’s Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, he is the Vice President of Development. “Ryan will be a tremendous leader,” said Zaloom. “He’ll be one of the best, if not the best, in our conference. He is what a coach wants out of a captain. He is hard-working and committed. He can run the option extremely well. He makes good decisions and knows our offense inside-and-out. I’d be proud to be in the huddle with him as my quarterback.”

RYAN RACKLIFFE ‘05
#47 Outside Linebacker, 6-0, 225
Bristol, CT
Major: Civil Engineering

Ryan Rackliffe is one of WPI’s most outstanding defensive players. Last year, he led WPI in tackles with 75, tackles-for-loss with 8, and sacks with 5. He was named a First Team All-New England performer, and perhaps even more impressively, the Worcester Area Football Coaches Defensive Player of the Year. This year, Ryan will be making a switch from defensive tackle to an outside linebacker position, where it is hoped he will be able to wreak more havoc. Ryan will be entering his third and final year of eligibility at WPI. He transferred to WPI from Sacred Heart three years ago. A civil engineering major, he is expected to graduate in May. “The best thing I can say about Ryan is that he is quite an athlete,” said Zaloom. “He is the prototypical college football player. He is big, strong, and can really run. We’re going to take a look at him outside, where we can take advantage of his quickness. In today’s game, you may take a linebacker and put him inside, but it’s rare to take a down lineman and put him outside. He has a chance to be the best in his new league. We’ll see how he adjusts.”

MARK RUSSO ‘05
#56 Offensive Lineman, 6-1, 270
Bristol, CT
Major: Biomedical Engineering

Mark Russo has been a fixture at offensive guard since the end of his freshman year. Now a senior, he has started every game since his last game as a freshman (21 straight entering 2004; 23 starts overall). Mark is the leader of a veteran line and is well-decorated as an offensive lineman. He was Second Team All-Conference in both 2002 and 2003. He was First Team All-Worcester Area Football Coaches Association as both a sophomore and junior. And he has been an Academic All-Conference performer for each of the last two years as well. A biomedical engineering major, Mark is hoping to go onto graduate school, possibly at the University of Connecticut. At his Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at WPI, he is Vice President of Community Service. “Mark Russo is one of the best linemen I’ve ever coached,” said Zaloom. “He is the perfect example of what an offensive lineman is all about. He is unselfish, totally-committed, and hard-working. He is strong, quick, and intense, and will be one of the best in his new conference.”
