Co-NEWA Wrestler of the Week: Wesleyan University, 285 pounder Isaiah Bellamy, SR, (Bozrah, CT). Bellamy won the RIT invitational this past weekend. He is currently 13-0 with 11 pins and has won his first 3 tournaments of the season. Bellamy started the RIT Invitational off with two first period pins. He then beat Kade Andrews of Oswego by major decision 10-1 in the Semi-finals. In the finals he beat 2X All American and Current #3 ranked wrestler in the country James Bethel of Oneonta by pin in 4:17.

Co-NEWA Wrestler of the Week: Johnson and Wales University, 174 Pounder Mike Gargano, SR, (Old Bridge, NJ). Gargano won his second tournament of the year winning the York New Standard Invitational. He went 5-0 to win the Championship. He pinned his first two opponents and then beat Dan Kilroy of TCNJ a returning All-American who was ranked #2 nationally 5-3. In the Semi-finals he beat #10 Justin Ransom of Baldwin Wallace by major decision 12-2. In the finals he beat returning National Qualifier Jaison White of Ithaca 1-0 to earn the Championship.

Co-NEWA Rookie Wrestler of the Week: Plymouth State University, 184 Pounder Dylan Da Silva, FR, (Bayville, NJ). Da Silva went 4-0 and won the 184-Pound Championship at the Ted Reese Invitational. He won his first match by pin and then beat Berson of the USCGA 5-1. In the Semi-finals he beat the #1 seed Wes Sorey of Apprentice 12-5. In the finals he beat Jon Wagner of USCGA 7-5.

Co-NEWA Rookie Wrestler of the Week: WPI, 165 pounder Brendan Marion, FR, (Norristown, PA). Marion helped lead WPI to the Team Championship at the RIT Invitational as he won the 165-pound Weight Class. Marion won a match by Techfall, Decision, and Major decision to reach the finals. In the Semis he beat Vittorio Santillo of John Carroll 17-9. In the finals he beat Andrew Gombas of Scranton by fall in :52 seconds.
Notes: Johnson and Wales, Roger Williams, and Williams competed in the York Invitational this past weekend. The tournament featured 11 nationally ranked teams and 4 teams ranked in the top 10 in the country. JWU won the tournament with 141.5 points outdistancing second place Ithaca by 6 points. Roger Williams finished 9th and Williams was 12th. Both teams finished ahead of traditional national powers Delaware Valley and Cortland. JWU had 8 place winners, 7 finalists, and 4 champions. Mike DiNardo went 4-0 and won the 197-pound Weight Class. He pinned his first opponent and then beat Maclellan of Baldwin Wallace 3-2. In the Semi-finals he beat #6 ranked Rocco Hladney of Elizabethtown 6-2. In the finals be beat Tyler Vittal of North Central by pin in the second period. Vittal beat returning All American and current #4 ranked wrestler Triston Engle in the Semis. Bobby Jordan went 5-0 to win the 125-pound Championship. Jordan had 2 pins on his way to the finals. In the championship bout he beat #4 Chris Doyle of Baldwin Wallace 7-5. Jay Albis went 5-0 and won the 133-pound Championship. The current #2 ranked wrestler in the country dominated the field. He had two pins and two wins by techfall to get to the finals. In the finals he beat the #2 seed Cavallo of Johns Hopkins 7-1. At 285 Jonah Aurelio competing in his first tournament of the season made the finals of a loaded weight class. Aurelio won his first two matches by decision to make the Quarters. There he beat #8 ranked Gabriel Mahaney of Baldwin Wallace 5-2 in TB2. In the Semis he beat #7 ranked Stefanos Karponitis of York by pin in 3:43. In the finals he fell to the current #5 ranked wrestler in the country Jake O’Brien of Ithaca. At 141 Mike Ferinde went 4-1 and took second. Ferinde beat Joe Rossetti of Williams 10-4 in the Quarters and beat Anthony Rink of North Central 7-4. In the finals he lost to Brett Kaliner of Stevens 7-4. Ferinde beat Kaliner earlier in the season in the finals of the Ithaca tournament. Khamri Thomas currently ranked #6 nationally won his first 3 matches to make the finals. In the Semis he beat Zack Shaffer of Ferrum 7-1. In the finals he fell to the #5 ranked wrestler in the country Jake Ashcraft of Ithaca. Joao Vicente went 5-1 and took third at 141. Vicente won his first three matches with a techfall and 2 major decision wins to reach the semis. After falling to Kaliner in the Semis he beat Rossetti of Williams and Rink of North Central to take 3rd. DJ Tirelli at 149 went 2-2 for the Wildcats. He pinned Ben Williamson of North Central in 6:01 who was ranked #9 nationally...Roger Williams finished 9th and to confirm how tough the tournament was, the Hawks only had 2 place winners. Taylor Shay for RWU went down to 165 for the first time this year. The move seems to be a good one as Shay made the finals of the York Invitational. Shay won his first 4 matches to make the finals. In the Semis he pinned Anthony Tolbert of Ferrum in 4:50. In the finals he fell to Arroyo of Baldwin Wallace who is ranked #2 in the country. Peter Hilburn was 5th at 174 going 5-2 on the day. Hillburn lost his first match of the day before winning four in a row including two pins to get back in the placing rounds. Tristan Haviland went 3-2 at 133 and Justin Cochran went 2-0 but then Medically defaulted in the Quarterfinals...Williams was led by Brandon Seyfried who went 5-1 and made the 3rd place match but due to the new 6 match rule, couldn’t wrestle the match. Seyfried on his way back for third beat former National Qualifier Andre Berry of Cortland 11-10 and Anthony Gagliano of TCNJ 3-2. Matt Morris went 3-2 at 125, Joe Rossetti was 5-2 at 141 and took 5th, and Sebastian Dziadkiewicz went 2-2 at 197...Springfield and Bridgewater state competed in the Messiah Petrofes Invitational. Springfield finished 6th and Bridgewater was 12th. Springfield had five place winners. Ian Tolotti went 5-1 at 133 and took 3rd and Joe Fusco went 4-1 at 285 and took 3rd. Tolotti won two matches by tech fall and beat Josh Kuslock of Waynesburg 7-3 to take 3rd. Fusco had 3 pins including a pin over Dylan Otis of Penn College in 7:34 in the 3rd place match. Bryce Finnegan went 5-2 at 141 and took 7th, Aarin Feliz was 3-2 at 165 and took 7th, and Connor Sheehan was 4-2 at 184 and took 7th...Bridgewater was led by Henry Oberlander who was 6th at 184. Oberlander won his first two matches before falling in the semis...In Dual meet action RIC and WNEU wrestled over the weekend. WNEU won the dual 44-2. WNEU won 9 of the 10 bouts and had four wins by pin and two wins by Techfall...USM hosted the Ted Reese Invitational. The USCGA won the tournament with 166 points followed closely in second by Southern Maine with 159. Castleton was 3rd with 138 points, Trinity was 7th with 73.5, Plymouth State was 11th with 46 points and New England College was 13th with 22.5 points in the 16 team field. JWU (4th) and RWU (9th) sent a group of wrestlers each who did not compete in the York Invitational. The USCGA was led by Christian Gosch who won the tournament at 157 pounds and was voted outstanding wrestler. He knocked off his teammate Chris Sullivan for the second tournament in a row. Sullivan is ranked #6 in the country at 157. Gosch went 4-0 to win the Championship and Sullivan was 4-1 and took 2nd. Matt McGowan went 5-0 at 141 and won the Championship. McGowan had two pins and beat Austin Shorey of USM in the finals 5-3. AJ Aeberli went 4-0 and won the tournament at 174. Aeberli beat Justin Stacy of USM in the finals 9-7. Freshmen Jon Wagner was 2nd at 184. Wagner went 4-1 with two wins by pin. The Bears also saw Parker Brunkala take 4th at 125, fellow freshmen Alex Frometa take 4th at 165 and Jeremey Berson was 4th at 184. Sophomore Pat Irwin finished 4th at 285, while Junior Nick Jabs was 5th at 165...Southern Maine finished 2nd and were led by Peter Del Gallo who won the 125-pound Championship. Del Gallo went 4-0 with 2 pins and two wins by major Decision. Austin Shorey at 141, Justin Stacy at 174, and Mike Risti at 285 all finished second. Austin Shorey continues his impressive freshmen year going 4-1 with 3 wins by fall. In the finals he lost to McGowan of USCGA 5-3. Stacy went 3-1 and beat Malik Settles of NEC in the Semis 3-1 before falling to Aeberli of the USCGA. Mike Risti went 3-1, but fell in the finals to Jesse Webb of Castleton 3-1. Caleb Austin was 3rd at 133 and Brandon Cousino was 3rd at 197. Austin and Cousino went 4-1 with two pins each on their way to 3rd place finishes. Jared Garcia was 5th at 149, Leo Amabile was 6th at 125, and Kolby Smith was 6th at 184...Castleton University finished 3rd behind three finalists. Jesse Webb continues his impressive start to the season winning his second tournament. Webb went 5-0 and beat Division II Rosemund of AIC and then followed that up with a win over Risti in the finals. Nick Camacho was 2nd at 133 and Cedrick Stephens was 2nd at 197. Camacho went 3-1 with two pins and Stephens went 4-1 and had an 8-3 win over Cousino of USM in the Semis. Max Temple at 149, Cameron Milliken at 157, and Jared Costa at 165 all finished 3rd. Temple went 5-1 with one pin and a 4-2 win over Weir of USM. Milliken went 5-1 and lost a close 2-1 match against Gosch of USCGA. Costa was also 5-1 with two pins. CJ Schultz at 133 and Nolan Viens at 174 finished 6th...Trinity finished in 7th and were led by finalist Grant Sorensen who finished 2nd at 149. Sorensen pinned his first 3 opponents and then beat Max Temple of Castleton 10-0 in the Semi-finals. Trinity had three other place winners. Reilly was 4th at 157 and Kaminski was 5th, and at 197 Ian Steckel finished 6th. Steckel lost his first match and then won 4 in a row with 3 pins to make it back to the placing rounds...Plymouth State University had two place winners. Rookie Wrestler of the week Dylan Da Silva won the tournament at 184 and Nick Simeti was 5th at 157...New England College was led by Malik Settles at 174. Settles went 4-1 and after falling to Stacy of USM came back and finished 3rd. He won all 4 matches by decision...WPI, Wesleyan, and Norwich competed at the RIT Invitational. WPI won the tournament with 150.5 points. Wesleyan was second with 113 and Norwich finished in 10th...WPI was led by two Individual champions. Tyler Marsh won the tournament at 157 and Brendan Marion won it at 165. Marsh went 4-0 with two pins and won in the finals 9-0 over Kaidon Winters of RIT. Marsh was dominant all day and did not give up an offensive point in 4 matches. Marion won the tournament at 165 and earned Co-Rookie Wrestler of the Week honors. Steve Jendritz at 133, Dan Wensley at 184, and Mike Curtis at 197 all finished second. Jendritz and Wensley went 3-1 with 1 pin each. Mike Curtis pinned his first 3 opponents before falling in the finals to nationally ranked Devon Carrillo of Wesleyan 5-2. Chase Lind was 3rd at 165, Andrew Ellis was 4th at 141(3-2), Peter Nash was 4th at 149 (4-2), and Austin Shrewsbury was 5th at 285. Lind went 4-1 with two pins...Wesleyan finished second and were led by the top and bottom of their lineup; Zack Murillo at 125, Devon Carrillo at 197, and Isaiah Bellamy at 285 all won championships. Bellamy is the Co-Wrestler of the week and Carrillo won his second tournament of the year. Carrillo was 4-0 with two pins and beat Mike Curtis of WPI in the finals 5-2. Murillo went 4-0 with 1 pin. He beat Zogby of WPI 2-1 in the Quarters, he beat his teammate Daouk in the Semis 6-5 in TB1, and in the finals he beat Hunter Howland of Oswego 7-6. Murillo beat all top 3 seeds on his way to winning the tournament. Amir Daouk at 125 and Carter Armendarez at 149 both took 3rd. Daouk went 4-1 and only lost to his teammate in the semis. Armendarez went 4-1 with 1 pin and after losing to the eventual champion he came back and beat Peter Nash of WPI 9-3 in the third place match. Freshmen Simon Chee went 4-2 and took 4th at 184, he won 3 matches by pin and 1 by techfall. James Matias at 149 and Ed Pierce at 157 both went 4-2 but couldn’t wrestle for 5th place due the 6 match limit.