Weekly Notes:

ASSUMPTION: Senior Jenna Goldstein (Duxbury, Mass.) became the third Greyhound to score 100 career goals in the season finale win over Franklin Pierce. She finished her career with 136 points (101-35), second-most in program history (Jenny Mongeau '06, 221 points).

BRYANT: Sophomore Allison Faiola (Billerica, Mass.) set the school single-season scoring record this past week with her 55th goal of the season. Senior Caitlin Hansen (Spring Lake, N.J.) is right behind Faiola with 54 goals this season, passing the previous record of 52 held by Shaun Leddy in 2004.

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Freshman Lauren Stille completed the regular season as the NE-10 leader in total goals (73) and points (87), while setting new school records for goals, assists and points in a single season.

SAINT MICHAEL'S: This past week senior Brynne Curran scored seven goals and is now one goal shy of tying the program record for goals in a season at Saint Michael's College (60) entering the playoffs.
